

Stealing Home

Looting, Restitution, and Reconstructing Jewish Lives in France, 1942–1947

SHANNON L. FOGG

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

List of Figures	xiii
Abbreviations	xv
Introduction. Restitution: Rebuilding Jewish Lives in Twentieth-Century France	1
I. RETURNING HOME
1. Reconstructing Homes: Rebuilding Private Lives in Postwar Paris	19
II. PUBLIC POLITICS AND PRIVATE HOMES
2. Displaced Persons, Displaced Possessions: The Furniture Operation in France	33
3. Competing Claims: Housing, the Restoration of Republicanism, and the Myth of Unity	57
4. The Restitution Service: The Creation of a Republican Bureaucracy	83
III. LOOKING BACK AND MOVING FORWARD
5. Rebuilding Families: The Gendering and Meaning of Home	111
6. Reclaiming Rights: Jewish Communal Responses to Material Loss	125
7. Social Rebirth: The Role of Public and Private Aid in Rebuilding the Jewish Community	149
Conclusion: Coming to Terms with the Past	173
Bibliography	179
Index	193