
AMERICAN JEWRY and the HOLOCAUST

The American Jewish Joint Distribution
Committee, 1939—1945

Yehuda Bauer

The Institute of Contemporary Jewry
The Hebrew University, Jerusalem

Wayne State University Press
Detroit

Contents

Abbreviations of Organizations	9
Preface	13
Introduction	17
1 A Time of Chaos	35
2 "Despair with Dignity": Jews in Central Europe, 1939–1941	56
3 JDC in Poland, 1939–1941	67
4 A Case of Rescue: Lithuania	107
5 Immigration to Palestine	129
6 The Jews of France	152
7 Facing the Reality of the Holocaust	178
8 JDC-Lisbon, 1942–1943	197
9 "Uncle Saly": The JDC Outpost in Switzerland	217
10 Under the Threat of Drancy: French Jewry, 1942–1944	235
11 Rescue Attempts in Western and Southern Europe	266
12 Rescue outside Europe	294
13 Amid the Tide of Destruction: Polish Jewry, 1942–1944	317

Contents

14	Rumania	335
15	Slovakia: Can One Ransom Jews?	356
16	The German Ransom Proposal and the Destruction of Hungarian Jewry	380
17	JDC and the War Refugee Board	400
18	JDC's Swiss Negotiations	408
19	"11:59": Saving the Remnants	435
20	Some Afterthoughts	453

Notes 460

Selected Bibliography 501

Index 505

maps

Europe in 1938–1939 and Concentration
Camps in Germany 71

Nazi Europe in June, 1941 181

Major Concentration, Forced Labor, Transit, and Extermination Camps in Europe, World
War II 189

France and French Concentration Camps in 1942 239

Yugoslavia under Axis Rule 279