

Agnon and Germany

The Presence of the German World
in the Writings of S. Y. Agnon

Edited by
Hans-Jürgen Becker ▪ Hillel Weiss

Bar-Ilan University Press, Ramat Gan

CONTENTS

Introduction	7
Andrea Weilbacher
Agnon and the Jewish Renaissance	17
Gerold Necker
Gershom Scholem and Shmu'el Yosef Agnon: Metamorphoses of a Friendship	41
Astrid Popien
The Bookcase of Dr. Manfred Herbst: S.Y. Agnon's Novel Shira and European Literature	63
Astrid Popien
Tirtza and Hershl in Germany: S.Y. Agnon's In the Prime of her Life and A Simple Story in the Context of the Family Novel in European Realism	115
Detlef Müller
Paralysis during Transformation: The Representation of German Characters in Agnon's Novel In Mister Lublin's Store	151
Andrea Weilbacher
To Hear what Life Is: Agnon's Reception in the German Press before and after World War II	175
Hillel Weiss
The Poland Stories: Introduction to Three Poland Stories and Comparison of Versions (Introduction: Hillel Weiss; Comparison of Versions: Boris Kotlerman; Identification of Sources: Abraham Yossef)	233

Or Torah	233
The Miracles of the Sexton of the Old Beit Midrash	275
Be-metzulot	325
Boris Kotlerman
Historical Time and Space in S.Y. Agnon's Sippure Polin	361
Yehuda Friedlander
Decadent and Menippean Elements in S.Y. Agnon's "Be-ne'arenu u'vizkenenu"	375
Elhanan Shilo
Kabbalistic Influences: A Look at "Aggadat Ha-sofer" and "Ma'aseh Azriel Moshe Shomer Ha-sfarim"	391
Hillel Weiss
The Presence of the Holocaust in Agnon's Writings	427
Yaniv Hagbi
Aspects of "Primary Holocaust" in the Works of S.Y. Agnon	451