

HISTORY, SPACE AND SOCIAL CONFLICT IN BEIRUT

The Quarter of Zokak el-Blat

Hans Gebhardt
Dorothee Sack
Ralph Bodenstein
Andreas Fritz
Jens Hanssen
Bernhard Hillenkamp
Oliver Kögler
Anne Mollenhauer
Friederike Stolleis

BEIRUT 2005

---

ERGON VERLAG WÜRZBURG
IN KOMMISSION

ISBN 3 89904 111 1

Printed in Germany

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface .....	V
Acknowledgements .....	VIII
Table of Contents .....	IX
Table of Maps, Table of Boxes .....	XI
Table of Figures .....	XII
Notes on Transliteration .....	XIII
Building Identification .....	XIV
Abbreviations .....	XV
Zokak el-Blat: Introduction to a Multidisciplinary Urban Research Project .....	1
HANS GEBHARDT, DOROTHÉE SACK, et al.
1. Microcosm of a minoritarian society 2 • 2. Post-war conflicts in urban planning and reconstruction 9 • 3. Writing Beirut: Geographies of class and confession 11 • 4. Multi-disciplinary fieldwork in Zokak el-Blat 16 • 5. The structure of the book 18
1. Walking through Zokak el-Blat: A Rhythmanalysis of the Quarter .....	23
2. The Making and Remaking of Zokak el-Blat: The History of an Urban Fabric .....	35
RALPH BODENSTEIN
1. The first hundred years: 1820-1920 37 • 2. Signs of things to come: 1920s-1940s 67 • 3. The old and the new: 1950s-1975 80 • 4. Continuities throughout ruptures: 1975-2003 92 • 5. Conclusion 105
3. Continuity and Change in the Architectural Development of Zokak el-Blat .....	109
ANNE MOLLENHAUER
1. The buildings of Zokak el-Blat during the late Ottoman Period 110 • 2. Late Ottoman houses in Zokak el-Blat: General observations 112 • 3. The transformation of the central hall plan: Case studies of individual Ottoman houses 118 • 4. Schools in Zokak el-Blat: A flexible use of the modern plan 123 • 5. The rise of the central hall house: Local innovations, Ottoman and European influences 128 • 6. Mandate and pre-civil war independence periods (1920-1947); (1947-1975) 130 • 7. From independence to the outbreak of the civil war 138 • 8. Civil war and post-war high-rises 141 • 9. Conclusion 142
4. The Birth of an Education Quarter: Zokak el-Blat as a Cradle of Cultural Revival in the Arab World .....	143
JENS HANSSEN
1. Streetwise inscriptions 145 • 2. Can the student speak? 147 • 3. "City built on a hill" - Protestant missionaries settle in Zokak el-Blat 149 • 4. Al-Madrasa al-Waṭaniyya: Educating post-war children 151 • 5. Cultural life in Zokak el-Blat 153 • 6. Muḥammad 'Abduh and al-Madrasa al-Sultāniyya 158 • 7. Out of Zokak el-Blat: Educational expansion in turn-of-the-century Beirut 160 • 8. Conclusion 164

Appendix: Nineteenth-Century Luminaries of Zokak el-Blat 165 • 1. Nāṣif and Ibrāhīm al-Yāziji (1800-1870) 165 • 2. Boutros Boustany (1819-1883) 168 • 3. Hussein Beyhum (1833-1881) 169 • 4. Khalil Sarkis (1842-1915) 171 • 5. Shaykh Aḥmad 'Abbās al-Azhari (1852/3-1926) 172 • 6. Shaykh Abd el-Kader Kabbani (1847-1935) 174

5. The Inhabitants of Zokak el-Blat: Demographic Shifts and Patterns of Interaction ..... 175

FRIEDERIKE STOLLEIS

1. Early memories and historical background: before 1960 177 • 2. The demographic situation on the eve of the civil war (1960-1975) 184 • 3. Demographic changes during the civil war (1975-1990) 186 • 4. Cohabitation in post-war Zokak el-Blat (1990-2002) 202 • 5. Conclusion 210

6. From the Margins to the Centre? Kurds and Shiites in a Changing Zokak el-Blat in West Beirut ..... 213

BERNHARD HILLENKAMP

1. Evolution of Zokak el-Blat's "minority" enclaves 214 • 2. Coming to Beirut: Pre-war migration from the South 217 • 3. More than schools - patronage for migrants, fealty to a za'im 220 • 4. Husayniyya: Founding Shiite communal space in a place of worship 224 • 5. Civil war and reconstruction: Leaving or remaining in Zokak el-Blat 227 • 6. Political representation: "Beiruti" Shia voting in the South 235 • 7. Political representation: The Kurds as a stateless Sunni minority 237 • 8. Votes for patronage: The first Kurdish NGO 239 • 9. Conclusion 243

7. The Problem of Safeguarding Historic Buildings in Zokak el-Blat: An Analysis of the Preservation Efforts Undertaken ..... 247

ANDREAS FRITZ

1. Safeguarding historic buildings: The institutional framework of key government players 248 • 2. Different approaches to the protection of historical houses in Beirut's pericentral quarters 251 • 3. Ineffectual governmental authorities 259 • 4. Heritage associations 259 • 5. Conclusion 260

8. Prospects for Preservation of Historic Buildings ..... 261

OLIVER KÖGLER

1. The condition and use of historic buildings today 263 • 2. Determining factors 271 • 3. Prospects for the preservation of historic buildings 284 • 4. Conclusion 287

Postscript .....	289
Arabic Summary .....	291
Selected Bibliography .....	297
Sources of Figures .....	307
Sources of Maps and Plans .....	309
Index .....	313
Coloured Maps 1-5.....	333
Figures 1-155 .....	340

TABLE OF MAPS

1. Black-and-White Maps

Map A	Zokak el-Blat Overview	cover overleaf
Map B	Surface relief and street network 1920	44
Map C	Family estates	55
Map D	State of development 1920	70
Map E	State of development 1945	71
Map F	State of development 1964	81
Map G	State of development 1977	89
Map H	State of development 1991	94
Map I	State of development 2003	101
Map J	Buildings from the French Mandate period	137
Map K	APSAD survey 1996	252
Map L	DGU study 1997	254
Map M	Khatib & Alami study 1998	257
Map N	Historic buildings and street extensions	264
Map O	Historic buildings' state of repair	266
Map P	Ground floor use of historic buildings	267

2. Coloured Maps

Map 1	Central and pericentral quarters in Municipal Beirut	337
Map 2	Age of buildings	338
Map 3	Building use	339
Map 4	Demolition of buildings constructed before 1945	340
Map 5	Number of storeys and zoning limits	341

TABLE OF BOXES

The Jeday Palace: in memoriam	49
The Farjallah House	56
The Béchara el-Khoury Mansion	96
Michel Chiha (1891-1954)	146
The Mukhayyesh Mansion	180
The Ziadé Mansion	189
The Heneiné Mansion	193
The Demolition of Buildings Constructed before 1945	269
The Majzoub House	279