

Frank Kwaw Codjoe

ELITES, IDEOLOGY AND DEVELOPMENT PROBLEMS OF GHANA

Verlag an der Lottbek

Peter Jensen

CONTENTS

	Page
CHAPTER 1	Introductory Purview
1.1.	The Conditions Aarising Out Of The Problems	1
1.2	Colonialism And Alienation	4
1.3.	The Colonial Economy And Its Problems After Independence	8
1.4.	The Elites And The Ideological Problem	11
1.5.	The Nature Of The Ideological Problem in The 1940s	17
1.6.	What Is Essential About Development?	21
1.7.	Why Did Nkrumah Choose To Install Socialism As Ghana's Ideology?	26
1.8.	The Method Of Approach	29
1.9.	The Conceptual Framework	32
1.10.	The Theses Of The Study	34
	Footnotes Chapter 1	36
CHAPTER 2
2.	The Theoretical Base: Reviewing Galtung's Theory of Imperialism
2.1.	The Bipolar State Of The World Society	43
2.2.	The Definition Of Structural Imperialism	45
2.3.	The Three Phases Of Imperialism	48
2.4.	The Five Types Of Imperialism	49
2.5.	The Convertibility Of The Five Types Of Imperialism	52
2.6.	The Transformation Of Interests	53
2.7.	The Concept of Hierarchy: Top Dog/Underdog Relations	55
2.8.	The Mechanism Of Imperialism	56
2.9.	The Spin-Off Effects (Ripple Effects)	58
2.10.	Structural Violence	60
2.11.	The Feudal Centre-Periphery Structure	62
2.12.	The Dependent Relations	64

2.13.	The Concept of Conflict	65
2.14.	Self-reliance	67
2.15.	The Dependencia Approach à la Frank	69
2.15.1	The Scope of the Dependencia Approach	69
2.16.	Why the Dependencia Theory?	71
2.17.	The Dependencia à la Frank	73
2.18.	The Development Of Underdevelopment	76
2.19.	Class Structure Of Underdeveloped Nations	78
	Footnotes Chapter 2	81
CHAPTER 3	The imperialist penetration: Casting A View At The Mercantile Era In Ghana
3.1.	The Genesis of the African Predicament	85
3.2.	The Special Position Of Britain In Mercantile Ghana	90
	Footnotes Chapter 3	92
CHAPTER 4	The Creation Of The Feudal, Vertical Relations: Colonial Rule In Ghana
4.1.	The Processes Of Colonisation	93
4.2.	The Nature And Role Of The Colonial State: Its Intricacies And Contradictions	100
4.2.1.	The External Indirect Rule	106
4.2.2.	The Internal Indirect Rule	109
4.2.2.1.	The Operation of The Internal Indirect Rule	111
4.3.	Ghanas Structural Integration Into The World Economy: Reviewing The Colonial Economic Set-Up	116
4.3.1.	The Mining Industry And Railways Construction	121
4.3.1.1.	The Emergence of Cocoa As Backbone of The Economy	126
4.3.2.	The Activities Of The Expatriate Trading Firms	132
4.4.	The Development Strategy Of The Colonial Government	137
4.5.	The form Of Socio-Economic Process In Colonial Ghana	139

4.6.	The Colonial Monetary Controls: The Banking System And Its Effect On Ghana	143
	Footnotes Chapter 4	157
CHAPTER 5	The Rise And Transformation Of The Western-Style Educated People Into Power Elite And The Basis Of National Problems
5.1.	The Educational System And The Procreation Of The Elites	164
5.1.1.	Western Education And Underdevelopment	174
5.1.2.	Educational Expansion And The Deepening Cultural Captivity	177
5.1.3.	Habit Formation In The Schools And Its Later Effect On The Society	183
5.2.	The Ascendancy Of The Elites: The Rise Of The C.P.P. And Political Change In Ghana	192
5.3.	The Political Development After The Formation Of The C.P.P.	201
5.3.1.	The Difficult Road To Independence	204
5.3.1.1.	The 1954 And 1956 General Elections	216
5.4.	What Is Ideology About?	221
5.4.1.	The Strands Of Ideology And Convertibility Of Ideology In Society	226
5.4.2.1.	Why Capitalism Is A Sensitive Ideological System In The World	230
5.4.2.2.	The Advent Of Socialism Or Communism	233
	Footnotes Chapter 5	238
CHAPTER 6	The Post-Colonial State, The Socialist Trend And The Development Strategy Of Ghana
6.1.	The class Basis Of He State	249
6.2.	The C.P.P. And The Post-colonial State Prior To The Republic	254
6.3.	The One Party State And The Intensification Of Socialism	267
6.4.	The C.P.P. Government's Strategy Of Development	272

6.4.1.	The Development Plans 1951 - 1960	273
6.4.2.	The 1951 Five Year Development Plan	276
6.5.	The Second Development Plan	283
6.5.1.	The 1959 Wittmann report	286
6.5.2.	The C.P.P.'s Programme of Work and Happiness	288
6.5.3.	The Seven Year Development Plan	292
6.5.3.1.	Agriculture	300
6.5.3.1.1.	The State Farms Corporation	306
6.5.3.1.2.	The Workers Brigade Farms	307
6.5.3.1.3.	The United Ghana Farmers co-operatives	308
6.6	The Industrialisation Strategy	309
6.7.	Infrastructure	314
6.8.	Manpower Development	317
6.9.	Controls, Reforms And The Financing Of The Plan	323
6.9.1.	The Policies	323
6.10.	The Institutional Structures for Control And The Tax Burden	327
	Footnotes Chapter 6	337
CHAPTER 7	The Volta River Project: Pivot of the Ideological Confrontation Between Capitalism And Socialism And Its Consequence on National Development
7.1.	The Dynamics of Modern Imperialism	345
7.2.	The Origins Of The Volta River Project	350
7.2.1.	The Aluminium Industry: Converting Bauxite Into Aluminium	353
7.3.	The Bringing Of The Volta River Project Into Shape	355
7.3.1.	Kaiser Aluminium Corporation And The Creation Of Valco	358
7.4.	The Master Agreement's Prevention Of An Integrated Aluminium Industry	363
7.4.1.	Aspect Of The Terms Of The Master Agreement In Nutshell	365

7.4.2.	The Construction Of The Akosombo Dam, The Fear Of The Aluminium Industry's Nationalisation And The East-West Confrontation	376
7.5.	The Western Strategy To Remove Nkrumah From Power	381
	Footnotes Chapter 7	493
CHAPTER 8	The Post-Nkrumah Era And The Western Strategy In Ghana
8.1.	The Ideological Overturning After 1966 Coup d'Etat	397
8.1.2.	The Dismantling Of The So-called Socialist Economy	400
8.2.	The Prelude To The 1969 Civilian Government	404
8.2.1.	The Busia Episode	404
8.2.2.	The Political Vendetta Of The Busia Government	406
8.2.3.	The World Bank, The DAS Team And Busia's Cabinet	409
8.2.4.	The Conflict In Busia's Cabinet: The Prime Minister Versus The Finance And Economic Minister	411
8.2.3.1.	The Revolt Of J. H. Mensah	412
8.2.5.	The Straw That Broke The Camel's Back	417
8.3.	The NRC/SMC Government In Its Inception	420
8.3.1.	Yentua And Nationalism	420
8.3.2.	Attempt At Self-Reliance And Economic Nationalism	422
8.3.4.	The Fall Back Into Conservatism	425
8.3.3.	The Union Government Approach	428
8.4.	The June Fourth Military Uprising	433
8.5.	The PNP Episode	439
8.6.	The 31 st December Advent Of Rawlings And PNDC	441
8.6.1.	The National Investigation And Citizens Vetting Committees	443

8.6.2.	The Emergence Of The PDCs And WDCs	445
8.6.3.	The Creation Of The Public Tribunals	448
8.7.	The PNDCs Economic Recovery Plan And The Deep Grip Of The IMF/IBRD	450
8.7.1.	The Effect Of The ERP And IMF Conditiona- lities	455
8.8.	The Search For The So-called True Democratic Government	465
8.8.1.	The Background	465
8.8.2.	How Did Democracy Emerge	473
8.8.2.1.	Macro-Democracy	475
8.8.2.2.	Micro-Democracy	482
	Footnotes Chapter 8	489
CONCLUSION		496
Footnotes Conclusion		519
BIBLIOGRAPHY		521