

MANAGING THE MULTINATIONAL SUBSIDIARY

Response to Environmental Changes and to Host Nation R&D Policies

Edited by HAMID ETEMAD AND LOUISE SÉGUIN DULUDE

CROOM HELM
London & Sydney

CONTENTS

List of Figures	vii
List of Tables	vii
Preface	viii
Contributors	x
1. Introduction: Managing the Subsidiary Hamid Etemad and Louise Séguin Dulude	1
Part I: The Emerging Policy and Operational Context	21
2. Industrial Adjustments and World Product Mandates: A Role for Public Policy Carl E. Beigie and James K. Stewart	23
3. Direction of Policy on World Product Mandates A.J. Sarna	46
4. Competing Nations for Global Product Mandates: Science Policies in Collision David P. Rutenberg	55
Part II: Managing the Subsidiary in a Changing Environment and Operational Context	73
5. Strategic Management of Subsidiaries Joseph R. D'Cruz	75
6. The Strategic Management of Multinationals and World Product Mandating Alan M. Rugman and Sheila Douglas	90
7. Specialisation and International Competitiveness Harold Crookell	102
8. Industrial Policy Orientation, Choice of Technology, World Product Mandates and International Trading Companies Hamid Etemad	112
9. World Product Mandates: The Need for Directed Search Strategies Norman W. McGuinness and H. Allan Conway	136

Part III: Some Empirical and Theoretical Evidence	159
10. World Product Mandates and Firms Operating in Quebec Bernard Bonin and Bruno Perron	161
11. Inventive Activity in MNEs and Their World Product Mandated Subsidiaries Hamid Etemad and Louise Séguin Dulude	177
12. World Product Mandates and Trade Bernard M. Wolf	207
Index	220