

Fabrication of Empire

*The British and the Uganda Kingdoms
1890–1902*

D. A. Low

Emeritus Smuts Professor of the History of the British Commonwealth in the University of Cambridge

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

	Preface	page ix
	List of abbreviations and locations	xi
	Sketch maps	xiii
1	Prologue: survey and agenda	1
2	Statecraft: external intrusion and local dominion	28
3	Ferment: conversion and revolution in Buganda	57
4	Upcountry: might-have-beens and the Buganda/Uganda outcome	86
5	Warbands: new military formations and ground level imperialism	127
6	Paramountcy: Toro, Busoga and the new overlords	150
7	Defeat: Kabalega's resistance, Mwanga's revolt and the Sudanese mutiny	184
8	Succession: Nkore and the war of Igumira's eye	215
9	Dénouement: aggregations and rulerships	249
10	Government: colonial settlements and the Buganda model	281
11	Capstone: honour, awe and imperialism	318
12	Round up and review	333
	Select bibliography	346
	Index	353