

Pitfalls of Ideology, Social Policy and Leadership in Africa

Instincts of predatorial leadership

Eric Masinde Aseka

New EME Research Initiatives & Publishers

Table of Contents

Chapter 1: Introduction: Ideology, Social Policy and Public Morality in the development of Africa.....	5-47
Chapter 2: Educational leadership in engaging absurdities of Higher Educational policy and practice in 21 st Century Africa.....	48-81
Chapter 3: Globalization, Unsanitized Intellectualism and the politics of total security management in Africa.....	82-151
Chapter 4: Rethinking the State in Africa and the drive for a New International Economic Order.....	152-215
Chapter 5: Quest for a New Moral Order in African Nations: Church, State and the politics of the postcolony.....	216-285
Chapter 6: Lack of intellectual leadership in methodological retooling: the perfidy of postmodernism in African social discourse.....	286-339
Chapter 7: Ideological vacuousness and derailed theoretical charters in African Intellectual Discours.....	340-416
Chapter 8: Media userism, punterism and identity transformation of communities in Africa.....	417-449
Chapter 9: Conclusion: The Information Age, new media knowledge and quality leadership in Africa.....	450-476