

THE GACACA COURTS,
POST-GENOCIDE JUSTICE
AND RECONCILIATION IN RWANDA

Justice without Lawyers

Phil Clark

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	page viii
List of abbreviations	x
Map of Rwanda	xii
Introduction	1
1 Framing gacaca: six transitional justice themes	29
2 Moulding tradition: the history, law and hybridity of gacaca	47
3 Interpreting gacaca: the rationale for analysing a dynamic socio-legal institution	81
4 The gacaca journey: the rough road to justice and reconciliation	98
5 Gacaca's modus operandi: engagement through popular participation	132
6 Gacaca's pragmatic objectives	169
7 Accuser, liberator or reconciler? Truth through gacaca	186
8 Law, order and restoration: peace and justice through gacaca	220
9 Mending hearts and minds: healing and forgiveness through gacaca	257
10 (Re)fusing social bonds: gacaca and reconciliation	308
Conclusion	342
Glossary	356
Bibliography	357
Index	382