

Enter the King

---

Theatre, Liturgy, and Ritual in the Medieval Civic Triumph

GORDON KIPLING

CLARENDON PRESS · OXFORD

1998

Contents

List of Illustrations	xi
Abbreviations	xv
Introduction	1
1. The Idea of the Civic Triumph	6
2. The Christmas King	48
1. First Advent: The Fulfiller of the Profecye	48
2. Ordo prophetarum : 'You are the Prince of God amongst us'	61
3. The Sacred Flower of Jesse's Tree	63
4. Birth: 'We all mowe blesse the tyme of your Natiuite'	71
5. Second Advent: The Soul's Jerusalem	85
6. Tidings of Great Joy: The Nativity Shepherds	99
7. A Season of Penitence: The Least Brethren of the Lord	102
3. The Civic Triumph as Royal Epiphany	115
1. The Magi's Gift: Schawand Him King with Most Magnificence	115
2. The Triple Triumph of the Emperor Augustus	130
3. By These Signs You Shall Know Him	139
4. Roy surtout très catholique	169
5. Theatres of Princely Epiphany	176
4. Third Advent: Grace in this Life and Afterward Glory	182
1. The Royal Entry as Triumph of Death	182
2. The Ascent to Glory: Margaret of Anjou (London, 1445)	188
3. The Office of the Dead and the Entry of Henry V into London, 1415	201
4. The Royal Entry as Elegiac Dream Vision: Katharine of Aragon (London, 1501)	209
5. The Apotheosis of Christ the King: Charles VIII Enters Troyes (1486)	221
5. Fourth Advent: The Civic Triumph as Royal Apocalypse	226
1. New Heaven, New Earth	226
2. The Wedding Feast of Sponsus Pees the King	237
3. The Bride in the Garden and the Power of Desire	250
4. The Wedding of the Lamb	264
5. The Visio Pacis as Threatened Paradise	280

6. The Queen's Advent	289
1. Assumpt about the Heuenly Ierarchie	289
2. Virgo Mediatrix	318
3. Conueie of Grace	327
4. The Queen Transformed: 'A worthie president, a worthie woman judge'	342
5. The Queen Declined: The Infernal Aduentus of Mary Queen of Scots (Edinburgh, 1561)	352
 Bibliography	 357
Indexes	373