

Hegemony and Resistance

Contesting identities in South Africa

THIVEN REDDY

University of Cape Town

Ashgate

Aldershot • Burlington USA • Singapore • Sydney

Contents

| | |
|--|------------|
| Acknowledgments | vii |
| Introduction | 1 |
| 1 The Construction of Subaltern Subjects in South Africa: 1652-1910 | 10 |
| Introduction | 10 |
| European Conceptions of the "Savage" Other | 12 |
| Slavery, the Slave Mode of Production and the Construction of a Symbolic System Premised on Color Division | 24 |
| The "Frontier Tradition", and the Making of South African History | 31 |
| The Missionary as Messenger, Representative and Mediator | 47 |
| Conclusion | 51 |
| 2 Inventing a Tradition of Otherness - the Contribution of Segregation Discourse to the Development of Apartheid: 1910-1948 | 53 |
| The "Cheap Labor-Power Thesis" Revisited | 56 |
| Segregation and Construction of "Non-European Otherness" | 64 |
| Early Segregation Theorists | 67 |
| The South African Native Affairs Commission and "Official Discourse" | 79 |
| Inventing Traditions | 96 |
| Conclusion | 104 |
| 3 The Subject has a Material Basis: Apartheid and Otherness | 106 |
| Before Apartheid: The Post-War Context | 109 |
| On Historical Investigation: Some Observations on "Apartheid History" and Discourse Analysis | 109 |
| The White Parties, Hegemonic Discourse and its "Threats" | 116 |
| The Afrikaner Nationalists take the Initiative | 122 |
| Apartheid | 130 |

| | | |
|----------|---|------------|
| | Apartheid's Premise: The Population Register and the Classification of Subjects | 130 |
| | Criteria for "Race" Determination and its Effects | 139 |
| | The Rationalization of Space: Apartheid, the Organization of Space and "the Other" | 142 |
| | The Pass Laws | 147 |
| | Apartheid, the Subaltern Subject and Labour Power | 149 |
| | A Critique of Davies' Explanation for the Racial Division of Labor | 154 |
| | The Strategy of Enclosure, the Compound, the Township and the Bantustan | 157 |
| | Conclusion | 168 |
| 4 | Counter-Discourses to White Hegemony in South Africa | 169 |
| | The Resurgence of Resistance in the Period of Reform | 171 |
| | The History of Military Force that Everyone Claims and the "Tradition" of Resistance | 176 |
| | Counter-Discourses to White Hegemony | 182 |
| | The Discourse of Rights and Equality | 184 |
| | Colonial Conquest and Psychological Liberationist Discourses | 192 |
| | Class-Based Discourses | 197 |
| | Black Consciousness | 204 |
| | Conclusion | 215 |
| 5 | Some Concluding Remarks on Hegemony and Resistance | 221 |
| | A Note on Gramsci, Foucault and Resistance | 222 |
| | Hegemony and Resistance: Defending "Hegemony" against Scott | 229 |
| | Rethinking Hegemony: Moving beyond Scott and Foucault | 232 |
| | Bibliography | 240 |