

REREADING TALMUD

Gender, Law and the Poetics of *Sugyot

by
Aryeh Cohen

Scholars Press
Atlanta, Georgia

CONTENTS

Chapter I: Introduction.....	1
Chapters .....	5
Chapter II. Literary analysis for redaction history: source and form criticism.....	7
Introduction .....	7
Part 1. Avraham Weiss.....	8
Part 2. David Halivni.....	25
Appendix. b Gittin 36b.....	33
Part 3. Shamma Friedman.....	34
Conclusion.....	42
Chapter III. On Framing the Question: intertextuality, translation, literary analysis: Jacob Neusner .....	43
Intertextuality.....	45
Translation.....	49
Literary analysis.....	57
Chapter IV. Talmud as Literature and Cultural Production .....	71
Introduction .....	71
I. Jonah Fraenkel.....	73
II. Daniel Boyarin.....	89
III. Boyarin, Fraenkel (and me).....	97
Conclusions .....	120
Appendix: b Ketuboth 62b-63a .....	123
Chapter V. Towards a Poetics of Sugyot or Sugyaetics .....	131
Introduction .....	131
Reading and Context.....	132
Reading Intertextually .....	135
"Representation" and "Reality" .....	141
Narrative.....	144
Sugya .....	147
Praxis.....	149

Chapter VI. Framing Women/Constructing Exile:
b Gittin 34b-35b.....	153
The Sugya .....	154
Reading the Sugya .....	156
Sugyaetics .....	158
Framing Women/Constructing Exile .....	165
Appendix I. David Weiss Halivni On b Gittin 35a.....	174
Appendix II. Gendering (and) Halakhah .....	177
Appendix III: סלקא דעתך אמינא ... קם"ל and Writing Under Erasure.....	188
Appendix IV. The Text.....	190
Chapter VII: Women and Slaves: a Reading of Gittin 12a-13a .....	193
Introduction .....	193
The Sugya .....	194
The Sugya At First Sight.....	198
Reading.....	202
Rereading.....	215
Reaching Towards the End .....	217
Appendix.....	220
Bibliography.....	225
Indexes .....	237