

FASHIONING JEWISH
IDENTITY IN MEDIEVAL
WESTERN CHRISTENDOM

ROBERT CHAZAN

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Foreword	page ix
Short titles for frequently cited works	xiv
Introduction	1
I. BACKDROP
1. Jesus and the Jews: the Gospel accounts	25
2. Post-Gospel Christian argumentation: continuities and expansions	46
3. Pre-twelfth-century Jewish argumentation	67
II. DATA AND FOUNDATIONS
4. The Jewish polemicists of southern France and northern Spain	91
5. Scriptural and alternative lines of argumentation	122
III. JESUS AS MESSIAH
6. Biblical prophecy: messianic advent	143
7. Biblical prophecy: the Messiah reviled and vindicated	162
IV. REJECTION OF THE MESSIAH AND REJECTION OF THE JEWS
8. Biblical prophecy and empirical observation: displacement of the Jews	181

9.	Biblical prophecy: redemption of the Jews	198
10.	Biblical prophecy and empirical observation: Christian failures	215
V. THE MESSIAH HUMAN AND DIVINE
11.	Biblical prophecy: the Messiah human and divine	233
12.	Human reason: the Messiah human and divine	250
VI. JEWISH POLEMICISTS ON THE ATTACK
√ 13.	Christian Scripture and Jesus	281
14.	Comparative behaviors: Jewish achievement and Christian shortcoming	298
VII. UNDERLYING ISSUES
15.	Techniques of persuasion	317
16.	Fashioning identities – other and self	339
	Bibliography	360
	Index of subjects and proper names	373
	Scripture index	377