

*The Mau Mau
War in Perspective*

Frank Furedi

*Chairman, Development Studies
University of Kent at Canterbury*

James Currey

LONDON

Heinemann Kenya

NAIROBI

Ohio University Press

ATHENS

Contents

Acknowledgements	x
Abbreviations	xi
Glossary of Kikuyu and Swahili terms	xiii
Maps	xiv

PART I

Introduction	3
The argument	4
The Kikuyu squatter	9
Historical specification	14
Research method and scope of the study	18
Notes	20

One

The Squatter Time Bomb	22
The consolidation of the White Highlands	23
The limits of settler power	28
The final assertion of settler power	31
Notes	37

Contents

Two

A Community Living on Borrowed Time	40
Who were the squatters?	41
The emergence of squatter society	45
A community under siege	47
The issues that shaped squatter resistance	52
A community on the frontier	60
Notes	71

Three

The Politicization of the Squatter Communities	75
Early political influences	76
The crystallization of the squatter movement	78
The Olenguruone factor	80
The resistance on the farms	83
The politicization of the movement	88
Uneasy alliance	90
The new militants	92
Notes	99

Four

The Split: The Emergence of Mau Mau	103
The growth of militant nationalism	104
The emergence of Mau Mau	109
Towards armed resistance	112
The state counter-offensive	115
Revolt and repression	118
The break-up of the squatter community	120
Notes	125

Five

The Revolt in Perspective	129
The significance of the split	130
The KAU and the squatter movement	132

Contents

The revitalization of the KAU and the Kenyatta phenomenon	135
Reflections on Mau Mau	139
Notes	143

PART II

Introduction	149
---------------------	-----

The ethnic factor	153
Notes	153

Six

The Administration Takes and Loses the Initiative	155
The controlled reconstitution of the Kikuyu community	156
The creation of a community of migrants and vagrants	157
The proletarianization of the squatter community	159
Decolonization and counter-reform	161
Institutionalization of discontent	164
The challenge from below	165
The growth of the nationalist parties	167
Notes	170

Seven

Heading Towards the Showdown: Decolonization in the Highlands, 1961-63	172
The Highlands in transition	174
Social unrest	175
The dilemma of decolonization	181
Class polarization within the nationalist movement	185
The challenge to mainstream nationalism	189
Land agitation	191
The turning point	199
Notes	200

Contents

Eight

The Consolidation of Reaction

	205
Demobilizing the mass movement	206
The consolidation of reaction	209
From Mau Mau to today	211
Decolonization in perspective	213
The problem of national liberation	219
Notes	222
Bibliography	225
Index	231

Tables

Table 2.1	Origin by district of squatters in Naivasha District, 1919	41
Table 2.2	The relation of labour migration to the Kikuyu Reserves, 1931	45

Maps

Map 1	Location of the White Highlands	xiv
Map 2	The White Highlands	xv