

A History of Modern Jewish Religious Philosophy

Volume 1: The Period of the Enlightenment

By
Eliezer Schweid

Translation by
Leonard Levin

BRILL

LEIDEN • BOSTON
2011

CONTENTS

Translator's Preface .....	xi
Abbreviations .....	xvii
Introduction Judaism, Philosophy and Modernity .....	1
Defining the Topic and Purpose of This Work .....	1
The Identity of Jewish Philosophy and Its Place in General Philosophy .....	7
"Religious Philosophy" versus "Philosophy of Religion" .....	14
The Crisis of Religion in the Period of the Enlightenment—the Beginnings of Modern General and Jewish Philosophy .....	25
The Special Task of Jewish Philosophy of Religion .....	33
Continuity, Centers, Influence, and Periods of Jewish Philosophy in the Middle Ages and the Modern Age .....	39
Chapter One God and Nature in the Philosophy of Baruch Spinoza .....	53
The Beginning of Modern Philosophy of Religion, General and Jewish .....	53
Asserting Freedom of Knowledge—of Self, and of World .....	55
The Doctrine of Spinoza's Ethics .....	60
Spinoza's Rebellion against Religion: Theological-Political         Treatise .....	66
Chapter Two Leibnitz and Mendelssohn: Enlightened Defense of Christianity and Judaism .....	87
Beginning of a New Dialogical Confrontation between Judaism and Christianity .....	87
Leibnitz's Monadology and Philosophy of Religion .....	88
Moses Mendelssohn: Enlightenment, Common Sense, and Tolerance .....	96
Mendelssohn's Phaidon and Jerusalem .....	98
Mendelssohn's Disagreements with Spinoza and Lessing .....	101
Mendelssohn on Religion and State in Judaism and Christianity .....	109

Chapter Three	Challenge of the Idealist Revolution in the Enlightenment: Religion in the Philosophy of Immanuel Kant .....	117
	Reason Addressing Religion's Perennial Questions .....	117
	Religion Within the Limits of Reason .....	128
	Kant's Critique of Judaism .....	132
Chapter Four	Philosophy Supplants Religion: The Teaching of G. W. F. Hegel .....	135
	Hegel's Ambition: Philosophy Embracing All .....	135
	Hegel's Dialectical Epistemology: The Ascent of Consciousness .....	137
	The Progression of Consciousness in Individual and Cultural Development .....	139
	Hegel's "Sublation" of Religion .....	144
	Hegel's View of Judaism as "Negative Dialectic" .....	146
Chapter Five	The Philosophical Return to Religion and Myth—The Philosophy of F. W. J. Schelling .....	153
	Schelling, Philosopher of Romanticism .....	153
	The Early System: Art, Creation, and "Intellectual Intuition" .....	158
	Rational Ecstasy: Knowing the Mind of the Creator .....	163
	Myth and Schelling's Religious Philosophy of History .....	166
	Schelling's Appropriation of Kabbalah .....	168
Chapter Six	Judaism Between Sensualism, Imagination, and Reason: The Jewish Philosophy of Religion of Solomon Maimon .....	173
	Celebrity of the Mendelssohn Enlightenment .....	173
	From Hasidic Village to the Streets of Western Culture .....	176
	Reciprocal Critique of Kant's and Aristotle's Epistemologies .....	178
	God as Postulate of Pure Reason .....	189
	A Skepticism Rooted in Maimonides and Kant .....	193
	Maimon's Philosophy of Religion .....	196
	Maimon's Philosophy of Judaism .....	200

Chapter Seven	Correcting Judaism By Its Own Criteria:
Saul Ascher's Philosophy of Religion .....	205
A Corrective to Kant (and revision of Mendelssohn) .....	205
Ascher's Leviathan : Redefining the Relationship of Religion and State .....	211
"Regulative" and "Constitutive" Stages in Religion's Evolution .....	219
Regulative and Constitutive Elements in Judaism .....	221
Ascher's Program for Reform; His Credo .....	225
Chapter Eight	The Appearance of Enlightened Orthodoxy in Response to Modern Philosophy—Naphtali Herz Wessely and Mordecai Gumpel Schnaber .....	231
Traditionalists Open to Enlightenment .....	231
Wessely: The "Law of God" and "Law of Man" .....	234
Schnaber: Enlisting Maimonides in Defense of Tradition .....	241
Schnaber's Foundation of the Torah : A Rational Reconstruction of Maimonidean Dogmatics .....	246
Drawing on Kant and Halevi .....	252
Modifying Maimonides' Rubric: Philosophical Pragmatism and Practical Traditionalism .....	260
Chapter Nine	Judaism as an Evolving National-Spiritual Culture: The Thought of R. Nachman Krochmal Based on Hegel's Dialectical Idealism .....	267
A New Guide , Using Hegel's Dialectic .....	267
Spearheading the Galician Haskalah .....	269
Krochmal's Adaptation of Hegel's Historiosophy for a Jewish Renaissance .....	272
Philosophy of History for a Culture in Transition .....	275
The Perplexity: Transition from Traditional to Modern Outlook .....	277
Krochmal's Pedagogical Strategy: Reformulating the Tradition in Modern Historical Terms .....	286
Diagnosing the Spiritual Errors of the Age, and the Truth To Which They Point .....	292
Affirming Spirit Within A Modern Naturalistic World View .....	302

Development of Culture: Technology, Science, Morals, Art, Religion, Philosophy .....	307
Monotheism, and the Unique Cyclical Pattern of Jewish Historical Development .....	316
Glossary .....	335
Bibliography .....	337
Index .....	343