

Catherine Hezser

Jewish Literacy in Roman Palestine

Mohr Siebeck

Table of Contents

Introduction	1
1. Social-Anthropological Approaches to Literacy	2
2. The Study of Literacy in Graeco-Roman Society	18
3. Jewish Literacy in the Biblical Period	27
4. Jewish Literacy in the Graeco-Roman Period	34
 Part 1: The Conditions for the Development of Literacy	 37
1. Education	39
A. Jewish Elementary Teachers and Schools	40
B. The Contents and Procedures of Jewish Elementary Education ...	68
C. Greek Education for Jews	90
D. Higher Education Amongst Jews in Palestine	94
 2. The Costs and Distribution of Texts	 110
A. Written and Oral Transactions	111
B. The Costs and Availability of Scribes	118
C. Writing Materials	126
D. The Distribution and Ownership of Books	145
E. The Existence of Archives and Libraries	150
 3. The Socio-Economic Functions of Literacy	 169
A. City and Countryside	170
B. The Social Status of Literates and the View of Illiteracy	176
 4. Religion and Literacy	 190
A. The Written and the Oral Torah	190
B. The Magical Use of Writing	209
 5. Language Usage	 227
A. Prior Scholarship	228
B. Language Acquisition	237

C. Languages and Social Spheres	243
D. Rabbinic Views On Languages	247
Part II: The Occurrence of Writing	251
1. Letters	253
A. Letter-Writing in Antiquity	253
B. Letters in Josephus' Writings	259
C. Letters in Rabbinic Literature	267
D. The Material Evidence of Letters	275
E. Summary	288
2. Documents	291
A. The Usage of Documents in Graeco-Roman Society	292
B. Documents in Rabbinic Literature	297
C. The Material Evidence of Documents	309
D. Summary	328
3. Miscellaneous Notes	331
A. Accounts, Lists, and Delivery Notes	331
B. Name Tags and Tokens	337
C. Personal Messages	340
D. Inscriptions On Objects	343
E. Summary	353
4. Inscriptions	356
A. The Epigraphic Habit in Antiquity	357
B. Funerary Inscriptions	364
C. Synagogue Inscriptions	397
D. Other Inscriptions and Graffiti	413
E. Summary	419
5. Literary Writing	422
A. Literary Composition in Antiquity	422
B. Jewish Literary Writing in Roman Palestine	425
6. Magical Writing	436
7. Summary	445

Part III: Participation in a Literate Society	449
1. The Readers of the Texts	451
A. Public and Private Reading	452
B. The Process of Reading	463
C. Readers and Audience	465
2. The Writers of the Texts	474
A. Writing and Dictating to Scribes	474
B. Writers, Hypographeis, and Illiterates	476
C. The Social Contexts of Writing	489
3. Degrees and Distribution of Literacy	496
 Bibliography	 505
Index of Literary References	537
Index of Names and Subjects	550