

THE THEMES OF THE GERMAN LIED FROM MOZART TO STRAUSS

Peter Russell

Studies in the History and Interpretation of Music
Volume 84

The Edwin Mellen Press
Lewiston•Queenston•Lampeter

CONTENTS

Preface	i
Foreword	v
Abbreviations	ix
Chapter 1: Introduction
Proposing the tapestry	1
Treating texts only	4
Establishing a sample	6
Which songs to include?	10
“Bad poetry”	12
Tracing the tapestry	15
The origin of song texts and composers’ choices	18
Chapter 2: Folk-song
What is a folk-song?	23
The discovery and collection of German folk-song	25
The effect of folk-song on German poetry	29
The effect of folk-song on song composers	32
The question of authenticity	36
Themes of folk-song and themes of the lied	40
Looking into the Magic Horn	47

Chapter 3: Wooing the Beloved (1)

Song as mating-call	51
The forerunners: Rococo pastoral	53
The adorer	54
The impetuous suitor	57
The modest and the diffident suitor	60
Romantic dreamers	62
Sickness and its healing	64
Happiness and gratitude	67

Chapter 4: Wooing the Beloved (2)

Separation	71
The distant beloved	78
Men rejected	84
Women rejected, and women assertive	93

Chapter 5: Wooing the Beloved (3)

Constancy and the golden ring	99
Inconstancy and betrayal	104
Jealousy and rivalry	112
Weddings	114
Past and future happiness	120

Chapter 6: Human Lives (1)

Men at their trades	129
Huntsmen	132
Soldiers and sailors	138
Musicians	146

Chapter 7: Human Lives (2)

Life in the family	153
Children	161
Violence	166

Chapter 8: The Quest for Happiness

Melancholy and despair	169
Contentment	179

Joy and sorrow together	185
Humour	189
Music and song	199
Chapter 9: The World Around Us (1)
Motifs of nature in folk-song and lied	205
The seasons: spring	207
Summer, autumn, winter	218
Chapter 10: The World Around Us (2)
The birds	229
The supernatural	239
Chapter 11: The World Around Us (3)
The Arcadian tradition	253
Nature's beneficent effect	257
Evening	265
Night	272
Chapter 12: The World Around Us (4)
Wandering	285
The sea	299
Homeland and Fatherland	304
Chapter 13: Beyond This World (1)
Antiquity	315
Transience	325
Death	331
Bereavement	348
Chapter 14: Beyond This World (2)
Spiritual yearning	355
Religion	367
Didacticism	385
Chapter 15: The Lied and History
The disappearing sawmill, the intruding funnel	397
The lied and politics	405

Conclusion	410
Bibliography: The Lied	415
Bibliography: Folk-Song	425
Index: Song Titles and First Lines	429
Index: General	449