

BEYOND PLUNDER

Toward Democratic Governance in Liberia

Amos Sawyer

BOULDER LONDON

Contents

Preface: An Outlook from a Scholar-Activist	xi
1 Liberia's Path to the Present	1
Institutional Analysis and the Story of Liberia	2
Recurrent Themes	5
Terms and Contexts	8
Foundations of Centralization in Liberia	11
2 The Legacy of Predation and Violence	23
Military Roots of Violent Conflict	23
The Irony of Taylor's Entrepreneurial Role	26
Understanding the Nature and Reach of the Violence	29
The International Context of Gangsterism in Liberia	33
Capitalizing on Predation in the West African Environment	36
Armed Gangs and Global Economic Order	37
False Starts at Conflict Resolution	40
Consequences of State Failure and Violence	43
Gruesome Picture, Ray of Hope	51
3 Foundations for a New Order	57
Local Institutions and Local Governance	58
Local Institutions and Conflict Resolution	62
Collective Action and Associational Life	67
Religious-Based Institutions	70
Economic Organizations	72

Entrepreneurial Spirit in Service to Self-Governance	73
Local Nongovernmental Organizations	75
International Nongovernmental Organizations	76
The Liberian Diaspora Communities	78
Resources for Survival and Building Blocks for the Future	79
4 Rethinking Governance	85
Theories of Sovereignty and the Trajectory of African Governance	86
Decentralization as Governance Strategy in the Context of the Unitary State	88
The Liberian Experience with Decentralization	90
Going Beyond Decentralization	95
The Good Governance Agenda as a Post-Cold War African Governance Framework	96
The Case for Constitutional Change in Postconflict Liberia	102
5 Framework for Democratic Self-Governance	113
Bringing African Peoples into Processes of Constitution Making and Constitutional Reform	113
How Context Frames Constitutional Choices	116
African Indigenous Patterns and the Possibilities for African Constitutional Choices	118
Rules and Institutional Designs	120
Institutions as Social Capital	123
Polycentric Governance as a Democratic Alternative to Monocentric Government	124
Building Resilience Through Polycentric Governance	129
Appreciating the Need for Public Entrepreneurship	130
The Impact of the International Order	131
Guideposts for Framing an Alternative to Monocentric Government	133
6 Creating a Context of Peace and Security	137
Peacebuilding and Constitutional Choice	138
A Polycentric Approach to Peacebuilding	139
Creating Basin-Area Security Arrangements	139
Beyond Physical Security: Local Communities as Crucibles for Peacebuilding	147

Children, Youth, and the Elderly as Fundamental Peacebuilding Challenges	148
The Struggle for Gender Equality as a Fundamental Peacebuilding Challenge	151
7 From Theory to Practice	157
Framing a Polycentric System in the Mano Basin Area	157
Creating General Purpose and Task-Specific Governmental Institutions for Liberia	160
Counties as Jurisdictions of Shared Sovereignty	163
Reorganizing National Government	167
Establishing Task-Specific Regimes	172
Expanding Opportunities Through Polycentric Governance	176
Understanding Entrenched Resistance to Polycentric Change	177
8 Rethinking Citizenship and Education for Democracy	183
Citizenship and Governance	184
How “Citizens” Were Made in Liberia	185
Building Citizenship for Democratic Self-Governance	187
The Role of Education in Nurturing Citizens	190
The Place of Indigenous Languages	194
Citizenship and the Public Realm	196
9 Toward a New Beginning for Liberia	199
Appendixes
1: Chronology of Events	203
2: Internally Displaced Persons and Refugees	209
3: Representative Lists of Liberian Networks and NGOs	211
List of Acronyms	217
References	219
Index	233
About the Book	243