

Kamila Ciepiela (ed.)

Identity in Communicative Contexts

Table of Contents

Kamila Ciepiela

Explorations of the issue of identity in communicative contexts:
Themes and methods7

Alex Frame

Intersectional identities in interpersonal communication21

Kamila Ciepiela

A pair of ovaries or a butterfly: Bodily femininity of women with Turner's syndrome.....39

Barbara Lewandowska-Tomaszczyk

Language, leadership and visibility in online discussions.....57

Rotem Leshem & Rakefet Sela-Sheffy

Emotion-identity management through talk: Anger talk in young
Israeli men's accounts on a negative experience.....81

Krzysztof Kosecki

Stereotype-based representations of national identity in signed communication99

Małgorzata Kniaź

Functions of diglossic and Arabic/English code-switching in identity construction on Egyptian television.....117

Debora Quattrocchi

Issues of identity and 'otherness' in relation to accent and language in an intercultural learning context135

James Moir

Global citizenship: An education or an identity?147

Jadwiga Uchman

Eric Berne's Games People Play, the phatic and rhetoric modes of speech, and the "two to one dialogue" situation in Harold Pinter's
Birthday Party.....159

Martin Hinton

Identity as argumentation: Argumentation as identity175

Iga Maria Lehman

Cherry's contribution to the rhetorical theory for self-representation:
ethos and persona. Does the 'real' self of the writer exist?187

Linda Bäckman

'The prologue of my story' – positioning of selves in re-told migration stories199

Dániel Nagy

Redundancy as a tool for identity-creation – the narration scenes in Thomas Mann's *Joseph and his brothers*211