Contents

Dedication: Chinua Achebe Joins the Ancestors vii
Notes on Contributors xi

EDITORIAL ARTICLE
‘Once Upon a Time Begins a Story...’
ERNEST N. EMENYONU 1

ARTICLES
‘Real Africa’/’Which Africa?’: 8
The Critique of Mimetic Realism
in Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie’s Short Fiction
EVE EISENBERG

Writing Apartheid: 25
Miriam Tlali’s Soweto Stories
MARY JANE ANDRONE

Articulations of Home & Muslim Identity 40
in the Short Stories of Leila Aboulela
LINDSEY ZANCHETTIN

Ugandan Women in Contest with Reality: 52
Mary K. Okurutu’s A Woman’s Voice & the Women’s Future
INIOBONG I. UKO

Snapshots of the Botswana Nation: 65
Bessie Head’s The Collector of Treasures &
Other Botswana Village Tales as a National Project
LOUISA UCHUM EGBUNIKE

Widowhood – Institutionalized Dead Weight 77
to Personal Identity & Dignity:
A Reading of Ifeoma Okoye’s The Trial & Other Stories
REGINA OKAFOR
Feminist Censure of Marriage in Islamic Societies: A Thematic Analysis of Alifa Rifaat's Short Stories
Juliana Daniels

Diaspora Identities in Short Fiction
by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie & Sefi Atta
Rose A. Sackeyfio

Exposition of Apartheid South African Violence & Injustice in Alex la Guma's Short Stories
Blessing Diala-Ogamba

Locating a Genre: Is Zimbabwe a Short Story Country?
Tinashe Mushakavanhu

Mohammed Dib's Short Stories on the Memory of Algeria
Imene Moulati

Ama Ata Aidoo's Short Stories: Empowering the African Girl-Child
Hellen Roselyne Shigali

Ama Ata Aidoo: an Interview for ALT

REVIEWS

Amir Tag Elsir. The Grub Hunter
Khalid Al Mubarak

Gordon Collier (ed.). Focus on Nigeria: Literature and Culture
Ike Anya

Dominique Chance & Alain Ricard (eds). Études littéraires africaines: Traductions postcoloniales
Oumarou Mal Mazou

Laura Murphy. Metaphor and the Slave Trade in West African Literature
Helena Woodard

Eldred Durosimi Jones with Majorie Jones. The Freetown Bond: A Life Under Two Flags
James Gibbs