

Times Enmeshed

GENDER, SPACE, AND HISTORY AMONG THE
DUNA OF PAPUA NEW GUINEA

GABRIELE STÜRZENHOFECKER

Stanford University Press

Stanford, California

1998

Contents

Introduction	1
1. History and Histories: Historical Consciousness Among the Duna	12
Imagination and Contradiction in Historical Conjunctures	12
Patrolling into the Duna Region	19
The Events from the Aluni Point of View	21
Pervasive Themes and Metamorphoses	27
Historical Consciousness and the Vision of the Future	33
2. The Ground as Cosmological Image	39
People, Places, and Memories: The Individual Involvement with Locality	43
The Malu of the Parishes of Yangone, Aluni, Haiyuwi, and Kunei	49
Sacrifice and Gendered Power	52
Ground and Time in Local Perception	63
The Past in the Present	72
3. Residence and Identity	77
Locality	82
Residence	84
4. Dimensions of Marriage	99
Enduring Structural Aspects of the Bride-price System	100
Managing Inflation	110
Economic History	113
Managing Networks	118

5.	Production, Consumption, and Space: Women and Men in Everyday Life	123
	Female Life in the Recoverable Past	126
	Production and Consumption	134
	Gender and Marriage: A Summary	143
	Gender and Space	145
6.	The Enemy Within: Witchcraft, Consumption, and Agency	158
	Duna Witchcraft: Descriptive Outline	161
	Gender and Space over Time	165
	Gender and Consumption over Time	166
	The Payeme Ima	169
	Dealing with Witchcraft in the Past	172
	Witchcraft in the Contemporary Context	175
7.	Consumption, Personhood, and History	184
	Defining Consumption	186
	Gendered Difference Versus Inequality	191
	Personhood and Morality	195
	Transforming Ethnographies: Times Enmeshed	199
	Appendix	207
	Notes	217
	Bibliography	225
	Index	237

Sixteen pages of photographs follow page 98