

The Holocaust and the German Elite

Genocide and National
Suicide in Germany,
1871–1945

RAINER C. BAUM

ROWMAN AND LITTLEFIELD Totowa
CROOM HELM London

Contents

Preface	vii
I Introduction	1
II Why Moral Indifference?	24
III On the Cultural and Social Sources of Moral Indifference in a Nation That Failed	66
IV Value Dissensus in "German" Society	113
V One-dimensional National Elites: Impressions from the Pages of Social History	157
VI State and Society in Wilhelminian Germany: The Birth of Mass Politics	187
VII Weimar and After: The Politics of Ideological Militancy	220
VIII The Nazi New Order: Institutionalized Disorder	263
IX Toward a Social Theory of Moral Indifference	289
Epilogue	323
Appendix	325
References	353
Subject Index	365