

THE HEIDEGGER CONTROVERSY:
A Critical Reader

Edited by
Richard Wolin

The MIT Press
Cambridge, Massachusetts
London, England

CONTENTS

Preface vii

Preface to the MIT Press Edition: Note on a Missing Text ix

Introduction: "Over the Line": Reflections on Heidegger and National Socialism Richard Wolin I

PART I. Texts by Martin Heidegger 23

Introduction 25

1. The Self-Assertion of the German University (1933) 29
2. Political Texts, 1933–1934 40
3. Letter to the Rector of Freiburg University, November 4, 1945 61
4. Overcoming Metaphysics (1936–1946) 67
5. "Only a God Can Save Us": Der Spiegel's Interview with Martin Heidegger (1966) 91

PART II. Context and Testimony 117

6. Total Mobilization Ernst Jünger 119
7. My Last Meeting with Heidegger in Rome, 1936
Karl Löwith 140
8. Letter to the Freiburg University Denazification Committee,
December 22, 1945 Karl Jaspers 144
9. An Exchange of Letters
Herbert Marcuse and Martin Heidegger 152

PART III. Interpretations 165

10. The Political Implications of Heidegger's Existentialism
Karl Löwith 167

Contents

11. Martin Heidegger: On the Publication of the Lectures of 1935 Jürgen Habermas 186
  12. Heidegger's Political Self-Understanding Otto Pöggeler 198
  13. Heidegger's Idea of Truth Ernst Tugendhat 245
  14. Back to History: An Interview Pierre Bourdieu 264
  15. French Heidegger Wars Richard Wolin 272
- Bibliography 301