

B/97047

Fresh Perspectives <sup>on</sup> the ‘WAR ON TERROR’

Miriam Gani
Penelope Mathew
(editors)

THE AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

---

E P R E S S

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Contributors	ix
Table of Cases	xi
Table of Statutes	xv
Table of International Instruments	xix
Chapter 1. Introduction: Letters from the Front Miriam Gani and Penelope Mathew	1
Part One – Identifying the Threat and Choosing the Weapons
Chapter 2. Islam and the Politics of Terrorism: Aspects of the British Experience John Strawson	9
Chapter 3. Another Modest Proposal: In Defence of the Prohibition against Torture Desmond Manderson	27
Chapter 4. Protecting Constitutionalism in Treacherous Times: Why ‘Rights’ Don’t Matter W Wesley Pue	45
Part Two – Preparing the Ground: Balance, Proportionality, and Public Perceptions
Chapter 5. Balancing Security and Liberty: Critical Perspectives on Terrorism Law Reform Simon Bronitt	65
Chapter 6. Lay Perceptions of Terrorist Acts and Counter-Terrorism Responses: Role of Motive, Offence Construal, Siege Mentality and Human Rights Mark Nolan	85
Chapter 7. The Proportionality Principle in the Context of Anti-Terrorism Laws: An Inquiry into the Boundaries between Human Rights Law and Public Policy Christopher Michaelson	109
Part Three – Rules of Engagement: Beyond the Limits of the Law
Chapter 8. More Law or Less Law? The Resilience of Human Rights Law and Institutions in the ‘War on Terror’ Andrew Byrnes	127

Chapter 9. Black Holes, White Holes and Worm Holes: Pre-emptive Detention in the 'War on Terror'	159
Penelope Mathew
Chapter 10. Forgiving Terrorism: Trading Justice for Peace, or Imperiling the Peace?	189
Ben Saul
Part Four – Reports from Two Theatres of War: Legislation, Sanctions and Prosecutions in Europe and Australia
Chapter 11. The European Union as a Collective Actor in the Fight against Post-9/11 Terrorism: Progress and Problems of a Primarily Cooperative Approach	209
Jörg Monar
Chapter 12. The European Union, Counter-Terrorism Sanctions against Individuals and Human Rights Protection	235
Gabriele Porretto
Chapter 13. How Does it End? Reflections on Completed Prosecutions under Australia's Anti-Terrorism Legislation	269
Miriam Gani
Chapter 14. Executive Proscription of Terrorist Organisations in Australia: Exploring the Shifting Border between Crime and Politics	297
Russell Hogg
Part Five – Calling a Halt: The Role of Bills of Rights
Chapter 15. Strapped to the Mast: The Siren Song of Dreadful Necessity, the United Kingdom Human Rights Act and the Terrorist Threat	327
Colm O'Conneide
Chapter 16. The ACT Human Rights Act 2004 and the Commonwealth Anti-Terrorism Act (No 2) 2005: A Triumph for Federalism or a Federal Triumph?	361
Andrew Byrnes and Gabrielle McKinnon
Bibliography	379
Acronyms and Abbreviations	413
Index	415