

Cutting Red Tape

NATIONAL STRATEGIES FOR ADMINISTRATIVE SIMPLIFICATION

ORGANISATION FOR ECONOMIC CO-OPERATION AND DEVELOPMENT

Table of Contents

Summary.....	9
Introduction.....	17
Chapter 1. Simplification Strategies.....	19
Simplification strategies are part of broader regulatory quality objectives.....	20
Improving rule making ex ante	25
Regulatory impact assessment.....	28
Further procedural checks	31
Controlling the flow of new regulation	32
Reviewing existing burdens ex post	33
Targeting simplification efforts.....	33
Anchoring simplification strategies on quantitative evidence	39
Implementing simplification strategies.....	48
Commitment to simplification efforts	48
Simplifying regulation	50
Conclusions.....	55
Notes	56
Chapter 2. Simplification Tools.....	59
Introduction	60
Electronically-based delivery mechanisms.....	61
From traditional physical one-stop shops to centralised government portals.....	62
Joining-up e-government services	67
Data-sharing and standardisation	71
Process re-engineering	74
Simplification of licensing procedures.....	75
Facilitating compliance	79
Conclusions.....	81
Notes	82
Chapter 3. Institutional Frameworks	85
Introduction	86
Single purpose entities	86

Administrative simplification agencies	87
Regulatory reform agencies	88
External committees.....	90
Permanent bodies.....	90
Temporary or ad hoc taskforces.....	91
Multilevel co-ordination.....	93
Conclusions.....	94
Notes	95
Conclusions and Future Directions	97
Bibliography.....	101
Annex 1. Institutional Bodies in Charge of Administrative Simplification.....	103
Annex 2. The Standard Cost Model in European Countries.....	106
Boxes
Key points.....	15
1.1. 2005 OECD guiding principles for regulatory quality and performance.....	21
1.2. Administrative simplification in developing countries.....	23
1.3. Portugal's 2006 legislative and administrative simplification programme.....	26
1.4. New laws strengthened ex ante control in Germany, Greece and Italy.....	27
1.5. OECD guidelines for an effective RIA	29
1.6. Simplification strategies in the United Kingdom	39
1.7. The SCM Network	42
1.8. The Standard Cost Model Methodology.....	43
1.9. Benchmarking with the Standard Cost Model.....	44
1.10. Measurement efforts in Belgium and France.....	47
1.11. Simplifying regulation.....	51
1.12. Facilitating simplification of EU legislation.....	55
2.1. E-government and administrative simplification	61
2.2. Adele programme on electronic administration in France.....	64
2.3. One-stop business portals in Canada, New Zealand and Denmark	65
2.4. Specialised one-stop portals in Korea.....	66
2.5. E-government initiatives in the United States.....	69
2.6. 2005 OECD report: E-government for better government	71
2.7. Examples of data sharing solutions in OECD countries	72

2.8. Harmonising ICT infrastructure for business in the Netherlands: the ICTAL Programme	74
2.9. Cases of facilitated licensing procedures in the Netherlands and in Denmark.....	76
3.1. Australian taskforce on reducing regulatory burdens on business	92

Figures

1.1. Institutional body in charge of administrative simplification.....	22
1.2. Government programmes to reduce administrative burdens.....	25
1.3. Burden reduction efforts focus mainly on business	35
1.4. Duration for starting a business	36
1.5. Number of procedures for starting a business	37
1.6. Surveys are used to assess the scope of administrative burdens....	40
2.1. Techniques to reduce administrative burdens.....	60
2.2. Simplification of licensing procedures for business.....	75
2.3. Programmes underway to co-ordinate the review and reform of permits and licences at sub-national levels of government	78
2.4. Programme underway to review and reduce the number of licences and permits required by the national government.....	78