

SUB Hamburg

A/561085

Captives of Sovereignty

JONATHAN HAVERCROFT

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Acknowledgments	page vi
Introduction	1
Part I	13
1 A picture holds us captive	15
2 Sovereignty, judgment, and epistemic skepticism	53
3 Sovereignty, language, and ethical skepticism	76
4 Sovereignty, religious skepticism, and the theological-political problem	99
Part II	139
Introduction to Part II	141
5 Political authority and skepticism	145
6 Authority, criteria, and the new social contract	163
7 The claim of global community	197
Conclusion: authority without supremacy, community with contestation	231
Bibliography	243
Index	256