

Public Services Inspection in the UK

Edited by Howard Davis
and Steve Martin

RESEARCH HIGHLIGHTS 50

Jessica Kingsley Publishers
London and Philadelphia

Contents

1. The Rise of Public Services Inspection 7
Steve Martin, Cardiff Business School, and Howard Davis, Warwick Business School
2. Inspection of Local Government Services 19
James Downe, Cardiff University
3. Inspection of Adult and Children's Social Care 37
Chris Johns, University of Wales Business School, Cardiff and David Lock, University of Wales Institute, Cardiff
4. Inspection of Education and Skills: From Improvement to Accountability 52
Jane Martin, Local Better Regulation Office
5. Regulation and Inspection of Health Services 68
Kieran Walshe, Manchester Business School
6. Inspection and the Criminal Justice Agencies 87
John W. Raine, University of Birmingham
7. Holistic Public Services Inspection 102
Steve Bundred, Audit Commission, and Clive Grace, Cardiff University
8. Performance Paradoxes: The Politics of Evaluation in Public Services 120
John Clarke, Open University

9.	The Future of Public Services Inspection	135
	Howard Davis, Warwick Business School, and Steve Martin, and Cardiff Business School

	THE EDITORS	152
	THE CONTRIBUTORS	153
	SUBJECT INDEX	155
	AUTHOR INDEX	159

Tables and Figure

Table 5.1	The regulatory regime of the Healthcare Commission in England	79
Table 5.2	The impact of healthcare regulation on performance	81
Figure 7.1	Relationship between public services regulation, national policy and delivery, local policy and delivery and customers, citizens and electorate	113