

Corporate Governance in Emerging Markets

858 567 032

Enforcement of Corporate Governance in Asia

THE UNFINISHED AGENDA

Table of Contents

Executive Summary	7
Chapter 1. The Merits of Shareholder Collective Actions (Class Action Suits) in Chinese Taipei	19
1. Securities class actions in Chinese Taipei	19
2. Rigid civil law approaches weaken corporate and securities laws	20
3. Regulatory competition fragments corporate law enforcement.....	21
4. Insufficient supervision of directors by supervisors	21
5. Institutional barriers to class actions in Chinese Taipei	22
6. Reliance on criminal enforcement.....	23
7. Enforcement against short-swing profit disgorgement.....	26
8. Recent piggyback enforcement case studies.....	26
9. The Investors Protection Law of 2003.....	29
10. New experience under the Investors Protection Law	31
11. Conclusions	32
Appendix.....	37
Chapter 2. Procomp: A Case in Chinese Taipei	49
1. Background	49
2. Facts in the Procomp case	50
3. Liabilities.....	57
4. Investigations and enforcement.....	57
5. The impact of the Procomp case.....	59
Chapter 3. Ensuring Judicial Infrastructure: The Theory and Practice of Specialised Courts	61
1. Introduction	61
2. The theory of specialised courts	62
3. The practice of specialised business courts	65
4. Concluding remarks and recommendations.....	69

Chapter 4.	Relations between Regulators and Prosecutors in Korea	77
1.	Acts and regulations on corporate governance.....	77
2.	Administrative bodies regulating corporate governance.....	77
3.	Korea's prosecutorial system and its relations with administrative bodies.....	80
4.	A real investigation: The case of S Group.....	83
5.	The significance of the investigation.....	85
Chapter 5.	The Prospects for Arbitration and Alternative Dispute Resolution	87
1.	Why arbitration ?.....	87
2.	Suitability of arbitration in company law disputes.....	88
3.	Difficulties of arbitration in company law disputes.....	89
4.	Enforcement.....	90
5.	Conclusion.....	91
Chapter 6.	Implementation and Enforcement of Rules in Singapore and the Case of China Aviation Oil	93
1.	Singapore's legal system.....	93
2.	Recent commercial misconduct cases.....	97
3.	China Aviation Oil – A case study.....	99
4.	Proposed reforms.....	102
5.	Conclusion.....	106
	Appendix.....	108