

116 910 0376

Globalisation in Fisheries and Aquaculture

OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES

Table of Contents

Acronyms .....	9
Executive Summary .....	11
Chapter 1. Introduction .....	17
Defining globalisation .....	18
The value-chain approach .....	19
Notes .....	22
Chapter 2. Globalisation in the Harvesting Sector .....	23
Globalisation in harvesting .....	25
Investing abroad in capture fisheries .....	27
Bilateral fisheries access arrangements .....	28
High seas fishing .....	35
Policy implementation gaps .....	36
Notes .....	41
Chapter 3. Globalisation in the Aquaculture Sector .....	43
Internationalisation of aquaculture production .....	46
Policy implementation gaps .....	49
Notes .....	54
Bibliography .....	55
Chapter 4. Globalisation in the Fish Processing Sector .....	57
Regulatory environment for processing .....	61
Developing country issues .....	62
Developed country issues .....	63
Industry consolidation .....	64
Policy implementation gaps .....	66
Bibliography .....	69
Chapter 5. Globalisation in the Fisheries Retail Sector .....	71
Globalisation of the fish retail sector .....	73
The growth of private standards and labels for sustainability .....	76
Policy issues and challenges .....	79
Policy options .....	81
Final observations .....	83
Notes .....	84
Bibliography .....	84

Chapter 6. Addressing the Policy Challenges ..... 87

    Implementation of effective governance and management frameworks ..... 89

    Managing fishing industry adjustment ..... 91

    Policy coherence..... 95

    Compliance with existing international rules and regulations,
    and setting new standards where appropriate ..... 97

    Market access ..... 98

    Fisheries food safety ..... 99

    Concluding observations..... 101

    Notes ..... 103

Annex A. Globalisation and Fisheries Developments..... 105

Annex B. Global Developments in Groundfish, Salmon, Shrimp and Tuna..... 119

Annex C. The Largest Seafood Companies Globally by Region ..... 151