

AFRICAN ISSUES

Identity
Economics

Social Networks
& the Informal Economy
in Nigeria

KATE MEAGHER

Lecturer, DESTIN
London School of Economics

 JAMES CURREY

CONTENTS

List of Figures & Tables	ix
Acknowledgements	x
Abbreviations	xiv

1
Introduction		Social Networks & Economic Ungovernance in Africa	1
2
Beyond the Cultural Turn		Rethinking African Informality	11
3
Oracles, Secrets Societies &amp; Hometown Identities		An Institutional History of Igbo Economic Networks	27
4
Unleashing Popular Entrepreneurship		Informal Manufacturing & Economic Restructuring	56
5
The Scramble for Weak Ties		Restructuring Informal Enterprise Networks	83
6
Negotiating the Web of Associational Life		Popular Associations & Networking Strategies	105
7
Collective Efficiency or Cutthroat Cooperation?		Networks of Accumulation & Networks of Survival	121

Informality, Cliental Networks &amp; Vigilantes	8	Producers' Associations & the State	140
Missing Link or Missed Opportunity?	9	Social Networks & Economic Development in Africa	164
		Epilogue	179
		Appendices	181
		Bibliography	183
		Index	201