

Anticipating Risks and Organising Risk Regulation

BRIDGET M. HUTTER

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents AO Wu

Notes on contributors	page	ix
Preface		xiii
Part I Introduction		1
1 Anticipating risk and organising risk regulation: current dilemmas		3
BRIDGET M. HUTTER
Part II Threat, vulnerabilities and insecurities		23
2 Risk society and financial risk		25
CLIVE BRIAULT
3 Before the sky falls down: a 'constitutional dialogue' over the depletion of internet addresses		46
JEANETTE HOFMANN
4 Changing attitudes to risk? Managing myxomatosis in twentieth-century Britain		68
PETER BARTRIP
5 Public perceptions of risk and 'compensation culture' in the UK		90
SALLY LLOYD-BOSTOCK
6 Colonised by risk – the emergence of academic risks in British higher education		114
MICHAEL HUBER

Part III Social, organisational and regulatory sources of resilience and security	137
7 Regulating resilience? Regulatory work in high-risk arenas CARL MACRAE	139
8 Critical infrastructures, resilience and organisation of mega-projects: the Olympic Games WILL JENNINGS AND MARTIN LODGE	161
9 Creating space for engagement? Lay membership in contemporary risk governance KEVIN E. JONES AND ALAN IRWIN	185
10 Bioethics and the risk regulation of 'frontier research': the case of gene therapy JAVIER LEZAUN	208
11 Preparing for future crises: lessons from research ARJEN BOIN	231
12 Conclusion: important themes and future research directions BRIDGET M. HUTTER	249
References	265
Author index	296
Subject index	301

