

831 669 640

Africa's Future, Africa's Challenge

Contents

|                        |  |              |
|------------------------|--|--------------|
| Foreword        |  | xix   |
| Acknowledgments |  | xxi   |
| Contributors    |  | xxiii |
| Abbreviations   |  | xxvii |
| Introduction    |  | 1     |
|                        | Alan Pence, Judith L. Evans, and Marito Garcia      |              |
|                        | Children in Sub-Saharan Africa                             | 1            |
|                        | Children as Social Entities                                | 2            |
|                        | Children on the Agenda in Africa                           | 3            |
|                        | Why This Volume?   | 3            |
|                        | Sections and Chapters                                      | 4            |
|                        | Notes  | 6            |
|                        | References   | 6            |
| SECTION 1       | Contexts  | 9     |
| Chapter 1       | The State of Young Children in Sub-Saharan Africa   | 11    |
|                        | Marito Garcia, Gillian Virata, and Erika Dunkelberg |              |

|                  |   |           |
|------------------|---|-----------|
|                  | Indexes Indicate the Conditions of ChildrenChildren in Sub-Saharan Africa Fare Worse thanChildren in Most Other Regions           | 1417  |
|                  | Investments in Young Children   | 26        |
|                  | Notes   | 27        |
|                  | References  | 27        |
| Chapter 2 | Positioning ECD Nationally: Trends in SelectedAfrican Countries   | 29 |
|                  | Agnes Akosua Aidoo   |           |
|                  | Africa's Young Children   | 30        |
|                  | Evolution of ECD Policy   | 31        |
|                  | ECD Links with International and RegionalConventions and African Development Policies   | 32        |
|                  | National ECD Policies: Needs and Challenges   | 36        |
|                  | Policy Development Process  | 39        |
|                  | Conclusion and Key Actions  | 44        |
|                  | Note  | 48        |
|                  | References  | 48        |
| Chapter 3 | Early Childhood Care and Education inSub-Saharan Africa: What Would ItTake to Meet the MillenniumDevelopment Goals? | 51 |
|                  | Adriana Jaramillo and Alain Mingat   |           |
|                  | Can the World's Goals for Children Be Met?Arguments to Support the Extension of ECCDActivities in Sub-Saharan Africa              | 5260  |
|                  | Policy Implications for Reaching ECD Goals  | 66        |
|                  | Conclusion  | 69        |
|                  | Notes   | 69        |
|                  | References  | 70        |
| Chapter 4 | Brain Development and ECD: A Case forInvestment   | 71 |
|                  | Mary Eming Young and Fraser Mustard  |           |
|                  | The Economics of ECD  | 72        |

|                  |  |            |
|------------------|--|------------|
|                  | Africa Today   | 73         |
|                  | Why ECD?   | 74         |
|                  | Brain Development and Function: The Science  | 74         |
|                  | Literacy and Health  | 80         |
|                  | Turning Around Poor Development in theEarly Years                                | 83         |
|                  | Vulnerability and Cognition  | 84         |
|                  | The Benefits of ECD for Africa   | 85         |
|                  | Conclusion   | 87         |
|                  | Notes  | 88         |
|                  | References   | 88         |
| Chapter 5 | New Threats to Early Childhood Development:Children Affected by HIV/AIDS | 93  |
|                  | Jodie Fonseca, Chloe O'Gara, Linda Sussman,and John Williamson           |            |
|                  | HIV/AIDS and Young Children: The Problem   | 94         |
|                  | The Rationale for a Response   | 100        |
|                  | Young Children Affected by HIV/AIDS:The Way Forward                              | 105        |
|                  | Notes  | 108        |
|                  | References   | 108        |
| SECTION 2 | Sociohistorical Contexts  | 115 |
| Chapter 6 | ECD in Africa: A Historical Perspective                                       | 117 |
|                  | Larry Prochner and Margaret Kabiru  |            |
|                  | ECD in the Colonial Era  | 118        |
|                  | Indigenous ECD in Historical Perspective   | 123        |
|                  | A Contemporary Community-Based ECD Model:Kenya's Harambee Preschools             | 126        |
|                  | Conclusion   | 130        |
|                  | References   | 130        |
| Chapter 7 | (Mis)Understanding ECD in Africa:The Force of Local and Global Motives   | 135 |
|                  | A. Bame Nsamenang   |            |

|                   |   |            |
|-------------------|---|------------|
|                   | Whose Interests Are Addressed in ECD Programs?  | 136        |
|                   | Fundamentals of Indigenous African ECD  | 139        |
|                   | Concluding Thoughts   | 144        |
|                   | References  | 146        |
| Chapter 8  | Fathering: The Role of Men in Raising Children in Africa—Holding Up the Other Half of the Sky                            | 151 |
|                   | Linda M. Richter and Robert Morrell  |            |
|                   | Absent Fathers  | 152        |
|                   | Why Is It Important to Involve Men in the Care of Young Children?   | 155        |
|                   | What Do Children Say About Fathers?   | 158        |
|                   | Men's Care and Protection of Young Children   | 159        |
|                   | What Still Needs to Be Done?  | 161        |
|                   | References  | 163        |
| SECTION 3  | Policy Development   | 167 |
| Chapter 9  | ECD Policy: A Comparative Analysis in Ghana, Mauritius, and Namibia  | 169 |
|                   | J. K. A. Boakye, Stella Etse, Madeez Adamu-Issah, Medha Devi Moti, Juditha Leketo Matjila, and Shamani-Jeffrey Shikwambi |            |
|                   | Ghana   | 170        |
|                   | Mauritius   | 173        |
|                   | Namibia   | 178        |
|                   | Conclusion  | 183        |
|                   | References  | 185        |
| Chapter 10 | Participatory ECD Policy Planning in Francophone West Africa   | 187 |
|                   | Emily Vargas-Barón   |            |
|                   | The Three-Country Project   | 188        |
|                   | Some Lessons Learned about ECD Policy Planning in Africa  | 193        |

|                  |   |            |
|------------------|---|------------|
|                  | Future ECD Policy Challenges  | 197        |
|                  | Note  | 198        |
|                  | References  | 198        |
| SECTION 4 | Programming  | 199 |
| Chapter 11       | Responding to the Challenge of Meeting the Needs of Children Under 3 in AfricaKofi Marfo, Linda Biersteker, Jenieri Sagnia, and Margaret Kabiru | 201 |
|                  | Key Issues: An Overview   | 203        |
|                  | Case Studies: Exemplary and Innovative Approaches to Policy and Program Delivery  | 209        |
|                  | Summary and Concluding Comments   | 220        |
|                  | Notes   | 222        |
|                  | References  | 222        |
| Chapter 12       | Introducing Preprimary Classes in Africa: Opportunities and ChallengesLinda Biersteker, Samuel Ngaruiya, Edith Sebatane, and Sarah Gudyanga     | 227 |
|                  | South Africa  | 229        |
|                  | Kenya   | 232        |
|                  | Zimbabwe  | 234        |
|                  | Lesotho   | 238        |
|                  | Opportunities and Challenges: What Have We Learned?   | 241        |
|                  | Conclusion  | 244        |
|                  | Notes   | 245        |
|                  | References  | 246        |
| Chapter 13       | Inclusive Education: A Mauritian Response to the "Inherent Rights of the Child"Gilberte Chung Kim Chung and Cyril Dalais                        | 249 |
|                  | Inclusive Education: A Brief History  | 251        |
|                  | The Experience in Mauritius   | 252        |

|                   |  |            |
|-------------------|--|------------|
|                   | Schools for Children with SpecialEducation Needs   | 253        |
|                   | From Segregation to Inclusion: A Long RoadDevelopments   | 253259 |
|                   | The Inclusive Reform Strategy  | 260        |
|                   | Conclusion   | 261        |
|                   | References   | 263        |
| Chapter 14 | Parenting Challenges for the ChangingAfrican Family  | 265 |
|                   | Judith L. Evans, Chalizamudzi Elizabeth Matola,and Jolly P. T. Nyeko   |            |
|                   | The Changing African Family  | 265        |
|                   | A Focus on Families and Communities  | 270        |
|                   | Strengthening Care for the Youngest Childrenthrough Parenting Programs   | 271        |
|                   | Conclusion   | 280        |
|                   | References   | 281        |
| Chapter 15 | ECD and HIV/AIDS: The Newest Programmingand Policy Challenge   | 285 |
|                   | Patrice L. Engle and Erika Dunkelberg,with Shireen Issa  |            |
|                   | Programming for Young Children Affectedby HIV/AIDS   | 285        |
|                   | Program Options  | 288        |
|                   | Best Practices and Challenges  | 298        |
|                   | The Policy Framework   | 302        |
|                   | Conclusions  | 309        |
|                   | Notes  | 311        |
|                   | References   | 311        |
| Chapter 16 | Supporting Young Children in Conflict andPostconflict Situations: Child Protection andPsychosocial Well-Being in Angola | 317 |
|                   | Michael Wessells and Carlinda Monteiro  |            |

|                   |  |            |
|-------------------|--|------------|
|                   | The Angolan Wars and the Aftermath   | 319        |
|                   | Tools to Support Young Children  | 321        |
|                   | References   | 328        |
| Chapter 17 | Strategic Communication in Early Childhood Development Programs: The Case of Uganda               | 331 |
|                   | Cecilia Cabañero-Verzosa and Nawsheen Elaheebocus   |            |
|                   | The Need for Strategic Communication in ECD Programs   | 332        |
|                   | Key Concepts of Strategic Communication  | 333        |
|                   | Case Example: Uganda Nutrition and Early Childhood Development Project                                   | 336        |
|                   | Conclusion   | 344        |
|                   | Notes  | 350        |
|                   | References   | 350        |
| SECTION 5  | Evaluations and Research  | 353 |
| Chapter 18 | The Synergy of Nutrition and ECD Interventions in Sub-Saharan Africa                              | 355 |
|                   | Harold Alderman and Patrice L. Engle  |            |
|                   | Synergy of Nutrition and Cognitive Development and School Readiness                                      | 356        |
|                   | The Programmatic Synergy of Community Nutrition and ECD Approaches                                       | 359        |
|                   | Conclusion   | 367        |
|                   | Note   | 367        |
|                   | References   | 367        |
| Chapter 19 | The Impact of ECD Programs on Maternal Employment and Older Children's School Attendance in Kenya | 371 |
|                   | Michael M. Lokshin, Elena Glinskaya, and Marito Garcia  |            |
|                   | The Kenya Household and ECD Centers Surveys  | 373        |

|                   |   |            |
|-------------------|---|------------|
|                   | Conclusions   | 384        |
|                   | Notes   | 385        |
|                   | References  | 386        |
| Chapter 20 | Madrasa Early Childhood Development Program: Making a Difference   | 389 |
|                   | Peter Mwaura and Bishara T. Mohamed  |            |
|                   | Background  | 390        |
|                   | Goals   | 392        |
|                   | Curriculum  | 392        |
|                   | Management and Governance   | 393        |
|                   | Operational Activities  | 393        |
|                   | Program Sequence  | 393        |
|                   | Research within the MRC Program   | 395        |
|                   | Impact of the Program on the Community  | 401        |
|                   | Conclusion  | 403        |
|                   | Notes   | 404        |
|                   | References  | 405        |
| Chapter 21 | Linking Policy Discourse to Everyday Life in Kenya: Impacts of Neoliberal Policies on Early Education and Childrearing | 407 |
|                   | Elizabeth Swadener, Patrick Wachira, Margaret Kabiru, and Anne Njenga  |            |
|                   | Education Postindependence: From Harambee to the National Alliance Rainbow Coalition  | 411        |
|                   | Final Reflections   | 420        |
|                   | References  | 422        |
| Chapter 22 | Community-Based Approaches That Work in Eastern and Southern Africa  | 427 |
|                   | Jane E. Lucas, Jessica Jitta, Gareth Jones, and Katarzyna Wilczynska-Ketende   |            |
|                   | A Review of Household and Community Interventions   | 428        |

|                  |  |            |
|------------------|--|------------|
|                  | Survey Evidence on Changes in Key FamilyCare Practices   | 432        |
|                  | Coordinating a Package of Interventions forGreater Efficiency and Effectiveness  | 450        |
|                  | Conclusion   | 453        |
|                  | Notes  | 453        |
|                  | References   | 454        |
| SECTION 6 | Challenges and Ways Forward   | 457 |
| Chapter 23       | Can Early Childhood Programs Be FinanciallySustainable in Africa?Adriana Jaramillo and Alain Mingat   | 459        |
|                  | Considering Costs  | 459        |
|                  | Policy Implications  | 466        |
|                  | Creating an ECD Policy   | 467        |
|                  | Unit Costs of the Policies   | 470        |
|                  | The Simulation Model: Putting It All Together  | 475        |
|                  | Summary and Conclusions  | 482        |
|                  | Notes  | 484        |
|                  | References   | 484        |
| Chapter 24       | A Tri-Part Approach to Promoting ECD Capacityin Africa: ECD Seminars, InternationalConferences, and ECDVUAlan Pence with Abeba Habtom andFrancis R. W. Chalamada | 487        |
|                  | A Tri-Part Set of Initiatives: Seminars,Conferences, and the ECDVU   | 488        |
|                  | Promoting Capacity through Multiple Approaches   | 491        |
|                  | Next Steps   | 498        |
|                  | Conclusion   | 499        |
|                  | Notes  | 500        |
|                  | References   | 500        |
|                  | Index   | 503        |