

Managing Gender Diversity in Asia

A Research Companion

Edited by

Mustafa F. Özbilgin

Professor of Human Resource Management, University of East Anglia, UK

and

Jawad Syed

Lecturer in Human Resource Management, Kent Business School, University of Kent, UK

Edward Elgar

Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA

Contents

List of contributors	vii
1 Introduction: theorising and managing gender diversity in the Asian context Mustafa F. Özbilgin and Jawad Syed	1
2 Diversity and inequality among women in employment in the Arab Middle East region: a new research agenda Haya Al-Dajani	8
3 A comparative study of EEO in Pakistan, India and Bangladesh Faiza Ali	32
4 Employee involvement in Malaysia: gender differences and similarities Norsiah Aminudin	54
5 Participation in the workplace in Bangladesh: gender integration issues for organizational leaders Syed Saad Andaleeb	72
6 Gender differences in work experiences, satisfactions and well-being among manufacturing managers in Turkey Ronald J. Burke, Mustafa Koyuncu and Lisa Fiksenbaum	86
7 Japanese Equal Employment Opportunity Law: implications for diversity management in Japan Nadine Courmaçias, Yuka Fujimoto and Charmine E.J. Härtel	104
8 Diversity management rhetoric versus reality: insights from the Lebanese context Dima Jamali and Hanin Abdallah	119
9 Reflections on difference: women, Islamic feminism and development in the Middle East Beverly Dawn Metcalfe	140
10 Gender and equality of opportunity in China's labour market Jane Nolan	160
11 Managing diversity: women managers in Asia Chris Rowley, Vimolwan Yukongdi and Jean Qi Wei	183
12 From gender empowerment to gender diversity: measuring the gender gap in Muslim majority countries Jawad Syed	210

vi	Managing gender diversity in Asia
13	Gender equity in a male-dominated industry: the case of the steel industry in Vietnam Anne Vo and Glenda Strachan	227
14	State management of the sex industry in China's past and present Tiantian Zheng	250
	Index	271