

EDITED BY BENSON HONIG, ISRAEL DRORI,
AND BARBARA CARMICHAEL

Transnational and Immigrant
Entrepreneurship in a
Globalized World

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO PRESS
Toronto Buffalo London

Contents

---

Foreword, by Ivan Light ix

Preface xvii

1 Researching Transnational Entrepreneurship: An Approach Based on the Theory of Practice 3

ISRAEL DRORI, BENSON HONIG, AND ARI GINSBERG

2 Contemporary Diasporic Entrepreneurship: A Conceptual and Comparative Framework 31

XIAOHUA LIN

3 Transnational Scientific Entrepreneurship: A Conceptual Framework 60

AMALYA L. OLIVER AND KATHLEEN MONTGOMERY

4 Building Effective Networks: Network Strategy and Emerging Virtual Organizations 75

INGRID WAKKEE, PETER GROENEWEGEN, AND PAULA DANSKIN ENGLIS

5 One World or Worlds Apart? Dual Institutional Focus to Enhance Venture Performance 100

PANKAJ C. PATEL AND BETTY CONKLIN

6 The Progression of International Students into Transnational Entrepreneurs: A Conceptual Framework 122

GERRY KERR AND FRANCINE K. SCHLOSSER

7 The Trade and Immigration Nexus in the India-Canada
Context 145

MARGARET WALTON-ROBERTS

8 Legal and Social Institutions for Transnational Entrepreneurship:
A Multiple Case Study in the Spanish Context 181

DAVID URBANO, NURIA TOLEDANO, AND DOMINGO RIBEIRO-SORIANO

9 A Review of Related Streams of Immigration and Global Entrepreneurship Research 199

BENSON HONIG AND ISRAEL DRORI

Contributors 211