935 455 965 ✓

Reviews of National Policies for Education

Tertiary Education in Chile

B 364053

THE WORLD BANK

Table of Contents

Acronyms and Abbreviations 9

Executive summary 11

Chapter 1. Overview 19

About Chile 19
Economy and society 20
Chile in the international context 21
International education comparisons 22
Chile's education system outlined 25
Secondary education and its effect on entry to tertiary education 26
Purpose, objectives and standards of tertiary education 30
The recent history and development of tertiary education 31
Principal national agencies 33
Tertiary education institutions 34
The student population 36
Admission to tertiary education: access and equity 42
Tertiary curricula 43
Tertiary education and the labour market 44
The regional role of tertiary education 48
Funding of tertiary education 51
Staffing of tertiary institutions 53
Quality assurance 55
Governance 57
Internationalisation 58
Research and development 60
Previous OECD recommendations on tertiary education 62

Chapter 2. Achievements and Issues 65

Introduction 65
Spectacular growth through institutional diversification and universal cost sharing 66

Implementation of bold reforms 66
Inconsistencies, inefficiencies and distortions 66
The student perspective 67
The tertiary education institutions 68
Meeting the needs of employers 69
Role of the state 70

Chapter 3. Access and Equity 73

Introduction 73
Recent growth in opportunities: impact on equity 76
PART 1. Opportunities to Access and Remain in Tertiary Education 79
The current tertiary admission system 79
Impact of the admission system on equity and access: the evidence 81
Students from lower income families and from municipal schools 81
Male and female students 86
Students by region 88
Retention and equity: the evidence 91
Equity issues in admission and retention: causes and policy options 92
PART 2. Opportunities to Access Student Aid 103
Equity and student support mechanisms 103
Benefits incidence analysis 113
Findings 115
Recommendations 117
Annex. Methodology applied to carry out the benefits incidence analysis 120

Chapter 4. Relevance 123

Introduction 123
Provision of tertiary education in Chile 125
The market for educated labour 126
Employers 133
System articulation: from secondary to tertiary 135
System articulation: within the tertiary education system 137
Relevance of academic programmes and course offerings 143
The international dimension of tertiary education 147
Recommendations 151

Chapter 5. Vision, Governance and Management 155

The nature and functions of higher education institutions 155
The authority to confer higher education degrees 157
Public governance 162
Institutional governance and management 166
Recommendations 170

Chapter 6. Quality 173

Introduction 173
From quality control to quality assurance and beyond 174
Quality of teaching, learning and taught courses 180
Quality of research 184
Quality of contribution to the community 185
Quality at outlying campuses 185
Quality of teacher training 187
Findings and recommendations 189

Chapter 7. Research and Development 193

Introduction: the need for research and development, and their relation to innovation 193
Research and development in Chile 195
Funding science and technological development, especially in higher education 206
Trends in research funding 211
Towards a better research funding system 213
Research policy framework and responsibilities 216
Developing university research 217
International co-operation 220
Recommendations 221

Chapter 8. Financing 223

Introduction 223
Resource mobilisation 224
Private tertiary education 231
Resource allocation 237
Resource utilisation 253
Findings 260
Recommendations 262

Chapter 9. Information, Transparency and Accountability 267

Introduction 267
Information for potential students 268
Information for policy-making and evaluation 274
The Higher Education Information System (SIES) 277
Findings 279
Recommendations 279

Chapter 10. Conclusions and Recommendations 281

Introduction 281
Conclusions and recommendations of the Presidential Advisory Council on Higher Education 281
Conclusions and recommendations of the review team 285

See also Ministry of Education of Chile (2007), OECD Thematic Review of Tertiary Education: Country Background Report for Chile, Santiago. http://dx.doi.org/10.1787/478236220760, also available at www.oecd.org/edu/tertiary/review