

Leading the Fundraising Charge

The Role of the Nonprofit Executive

KARLA A. WILLIAMS

WILEY

John Wiley & Sons, Inc.

Contents

Preface		xix
CHAPTER 1	Leadership Concepts
	Essence, Enigma, Energy, and Effect	1
	Introduction	1
	ESSENCE of Personal Leadership
	Necessary Elements and Ingredients	2
	Self-Awareness
	Perspective of Strengths and Weaknesses	4
	Sense of Reality
	See Through Objective Lenses	7
	Courage to Change
	Create Ideas and Take Risks	10
	Compassion and Passion
	Persistence to Make Things Right	13
	Ethical Conscience
	Pursuit of Fairness, Integrity, and Honor	16
	ENIGMA of Positional Leadership
	Pressures of Being at the Top	18
	Vision
	Dream is Meaningful and Achievable	21
	Values
	Mandate for Organizational Success	22
	Principles
	Assumptions Guide Decision Making	23
	Partnerships
	Teamwork that Fits the Situation	24
	Relationships
	Perceptiveness of Boundaries and Obligations	25
	ENERGY of Fundraising Leadership
	Differences Between Good and Bad	27
	Positive Energy
	Energy that Inspires and Stimulates	29
	Negative Energy
	Energy that Deters and Contaminates	31
	EFFECT of Organizational Stages
	Various Stages Will Alter Strategy	33

	INFANCY
	Vision and Values Create Impetus	36
	Adolescence
	Infrastructure Demands Are Paramount	38
	Early Maturity
	Expertise and Expansion Are Evident	40
	Seniority
	Transformation Needed for Sustainability	43
	Summary	46
	References	46
CHAPTER 2	Philanthropy Concepts
	Principles, Motivations, IMPACT, and Culture	49
	Introduction	49
	PRINCIPLES of Organized Philanthropy
	Spiritual and Democratic Ideology	50
	Tradition
	Way of Life that Advances Communities	52
	Spirit
	Can-Do Approach of Generosity and Gratitude	55
	Sector
	Designated for Inspiration, Ideas, and Ideals	57
	Process
	Connecting Donors and Recipients	59
	MOTIVATIONS of Personal Philanthropy
	Discovery of Complexity and Complications	62
	Demographics
	Conditions that Predict Probability	63
	Psychographics
	Values and Attitudes that Predict Inclination	66
	IMPACT of Community Philanthropy
	Measurable Economic and Social Benefits	72
	Social
	Engagement of People in Community Building	73
	Financial
	Monetary Impact to the Global Economy	75
	CULTURE of Organizational Philanthropy
	Foundation for Successful Fundraising	81
	ATTITUDE
	Perception Influences Opinions	82
	ADVOCACY
	Communications Shape Cultures	84
	ACTION
	Aligning Cultural Ideas and Ideals	87
	Summary	92
	References	93
CHAPTER 3	Development Concepts
	Profession, Professionals, Program, and Plan	95
	Introduction	95

PROFESSION of Fund Development
From Begging, to Selling, to Marketing 96

PIONEERS (1641 to 1904)
Moral Imperative to Collect Contributions 98

CAMPAIGNERS (1905 to 1960)
Consultants Who Codified Campaign Theory 99

TECHNOCRATS and INNOVATORS (1960 to 1990)
Merged a Calling Into a Career 101

REFLECTORS and CORRECTORS (1990 to 2005)
Shifted to a Donor-Focused Culture 103

RESPONDERS (2005 and Beyond)
Faced Expansion, Retraction, and Globalization 104

PROFESSIONALS in Fund Development
Characteristics, Credentials, and Compensation 107

CHARACTERISTICS
Expertise, Competencies, and Conscience 108

CREDENTIALS
Education, Experience, and Certification 112

COMPENSATION
Equitable and Competitive Salaries 116

JOB DESCRIPTION
Roles, Responsibilities, and Expectations 117

PROGRAM for Fund Development
An Integrated Seamless System 121

STRATEGIES
An Integrated Development Program 121

RESOURCES
Adequate Infrastructure and Systems 124

TEAMWORK
Key to Unleashing Energy and Talent 132

PLAN for Fund Development Program
Articulation of Metrics and Methods 136

COMPONENTS of the Plan
The Individual Parts, Assembled, and Linked 138

EVALUATION of Plan
Measures to Reduce Risk and Increase Effectiveness 141

Summary 145

References 145

CHAPTER 4 Relationship Concepts

Social Exchange, Alignment, Cultivation, and Management 147

Introduction 147

SOCIAL EXCHANGE in Relationships
Move From Transactions to Transformations 149

MARKETING
Social Exchange Based on Shared Values 149

MOTIVATIONS
Evaluation of Constituency Profile 153

CONSTITUENTS
Focus on High Potential Prospects	156
ALIGNMENT of Relationships
Constituency Analysis Uncovers Patterns	163
RESEARCH
Identify Donors With Linkage and Interests	164
SEGMENTATION
Organize Similar Donors Into Groups	170
TARGETING
Rate, Rank, and Match Donors With Cases	172
CULTIVATION in Relationships
Strategies To Build Long-Term Relationships	175
DONOR PYRAMID
Donor Movement and Monetary Distribution	176
CULTIVATION CYCLE
Process to Engage Donors Toward Mission Affinity	179
MOVES MANAGEMENT
Relationship System Involving Multiple Contacts	182
MANAGEMENT of Relationships
Techniques To Expand the Donor Base	184
ACQUISITION
Identify and Invite Donors to Give	186
RENEWAL
Encourage Donors to Repeat Behavior	190
UPGRADE
Building Donor Loyalty and Attachment	193
OVER-ABOVE
The Final Step in Donor Management	195
Summary	197
References	197

CHAPTER 5	Solicitation Concepts
	Case, Campaigns, Communications, and Goals	199
	Introduction	199
	CASE to Solicit Gifts
	Critical Elements of a Case for Support	200
	MISSION
	Relevance and Achievability of Vision	201
	LEADERSHIP
	Marketplace Position in the Community	202
	STABILITY
	Structurally Sound and Financially Responsible	203
	READINESS
	Institutional Assessment of Worthiness	204
	CASE FOR SUPPORT
	Compelling, Urgent, and Realistic Goal	205
	CAMPAIGNS to Solicit Gifts
	Integration of Fundraising Methods	207

ANNUAL
Program for Repeat, Loyal Giving	210
MAJOR
Program for Inspired, Impactful Gifts	213
CAPITAL
Program for Mega, Named Donors	215
LEGACY
Program for Donors' Last Gifts	218
COMMUNICATIONS to Solicit Gifts
Motivational Elicitors to Generate a Response	221
DONOR FOCUSED
Creation of a Social Exchange	222
METHODS
Solicitation Effectiveness and Efficiency	229
STEWARDSHIP
Accountability for Donors and Dollars	236
GOALS to Solicit Gift
Budgetary Approach to Match Needs and Interests	240
Summary	243
References	243
About the Author	245
Index	247