Table of Contents

Foreword .....	viii
Preface .....	x
Acknowledgment .....	xxi
Chapter 1
Understanding Time and its Relationship to Individual Time Management .....	1
Introduction .....	1
The Concept of Time .....	2
Time Dichotomies .....	3
Biotemporal, Physiotemporal and Sociotemporal Patterns .....	6
A Conceptual Research Framework .....	7
Conclusion .....	9
References .....	10
Chapter 2
What are Temporal Structures? .....	12
Introduction .....	12
Background .....	13
Temporal Structure Related Terms .....	13
What are Temporal Structures? .....	14
Personal Temporal Structure use with Calendar Tools .....	18
A Brief Description of Two Main Studies Reported in This Book .....	22
Future Trends .....	23
Conclusion .....	23
References .....	24
Chapter 3
Time Management and Temporal Personalities .....	26
Introduction .....	26
Background .....	26

Time Management Research .....	29
Identifying Key Measures of Individual Time Management Quality .....	31
Temporal Personality: Who are Effective Time Managers? .....	33
Conclusion .....	35
References .....	36

Chapter 4

Calendar Tools: Current Practices, New Prototypes and Proposed Designs .....	38
Introduction .....	38
Paper-Based Calendars .....	39
Paper-Based vs. Electronic Calendar Systems .....	40
Common Features Found in Current Electronic Calendar Systems .....	41
Time Management Improvements Suggested by Calendar User Studies .....	43
Visualization Techniques .....	44
Collaborative Calendar Systems .....	46
Conclusion .....	48
References .....	48

Chapter 5

Investigating Temporal Structure Usage in Individual Time Management Practices:

Two In-Depth Field Interviews .....	51
Introduction .....	51
Literature Review .....	52
Research Approach .....	54
Findings from the Interviews .....	55
Types of Calendar Tools being Used .....	55
Types of Temporal Structures Uncovered .....	57
Findings from the User Studies .....	59
Calendar Tool Design Implications .....	60
References .....	62

Chapter 6

Individual Time Management Profiles: Electronic Calendar Tools

Selection, Use and Issues .....	64
Introduction .....	64
Personal Profiles: Time Management Stories and Calendar Tool Selection .....	65
Conclusion .....	78
References .....	78

Chapter 7

Identifying what Constitutes the Quality of Individual Time Management and How

Individuals Process Temporal Structure Information: A Survey Study Design .....	79
Introduction .....	79
Literature Review .....	80

Temporal Structure Information Processing .....	82
Effective Time Managers vs. Ineffective Time Managers .....	85
Research Questions .....	85
Proposing Two Sets of Hypotheses: Bivariate and PLS Hypotheses .....	87
Data Collection and Measures .....	92
Conclusion .....	92
References .....	92

Chapter 8

How Academics Exhibit their Time Management Behaviors through Various Temporal

Structure Usage: Descriptive Analysis Results from a Large Survey..... 95

Introduction .....	95
Survey Design and Delivery Description .....	96
Descriptive Data Analysis .....	97
Construct Independence .....	102
Construct Univariate Analysis .....	102
Construct Normality Test .....	115
Conclusion .....	115

Chapter 9

Who are Effective Time Managers? Bivariate Correlation Analysis and

Hypotheses Testing..... 116

Introduction .....	116
Bivariate Correlation Analysis for Student Sample .....	116
Bivariate Correlation Analysis for Faculty Sample .....	118
Bivariate Correlation Analysis for Staff Sample .....	120
Hypotheses Testing .....	120
Conclusion: Summary of Hypotheses Results .....	138

Chapter 10

What is the Relationship between the Quality of Individual Time Management and

Temporal Structure Usage? Building and Testing a Research Model..... 139

Introduction .....	139
Building a Temporal Structure Research Model .....	139
Research Hypotheses .....	140
Data Analyses .....	144
Validation of the Measurement Model .....	145
Testing Temporal Structure PLS Models .....	147
Research Hypotheses Summarization .....	157
References .....	162
Endnote .....	162

Chapter 11

Input from Users: Personal Time Management Hints, Current Electronic Calendar

Tool Difficulties and Desired Features .....	163
Introduction.....	163
Dynamic Time Management in Practice.....	164
Hints for Being an Effective Time Manager: A Temporal Structure Management Process .....	164
Common Problems of Time Management .....	171
User Difficulties with the Current Calendar Tools and Desired Calendar Features.....	172
Conclusion .....	175
References .....	175

Chapter 12

Relationship between Calendar Tool Design and Temporal Structure Usage:

A Small Longitudinal User Study.....	176
Introduction.....	176
Correlations among Time Management Tools, Temporal Structures and Quality of Individual Time Management .....	177
A Longitudinal Study on the Impact of Time Management Tools on Time Management Quality.....	177
The Arguments for Improving Current Electronic Time Management/Calendar Tools.....	183
Conclusion .....	186

Chapter 13

Conclusion, Contribution and Implications to Future Electronic Calendar Tool Design.....

Introduction.....	187
Key Research Findings .....	187
Answering Research Questions.....	189
Relationship to Information Systems, Computer Science and Human-Computer Interaction Fields.....	193
Limitations .....	195
Contributions .....	195
Future Research .....	197
References .....	200

Chapter 14

E-Scheduling.....

Gerhard F. Knolmayer, University of Bern, Switzerland

Introduction.....	201
Background .....	202
Collaborative Production Scheduling.....	203
E-Scheduling of Office and Service Tasks.....	205
Future Trends .....	206
Conclusion .....	206
References .....	206
Key Terms.....	208

Chapter 15

Management of Learning Space .....	210
Susan M. Powers, Indiana State University, USA
Christine Salmon, North Harris Montgomery Community College District, USA
Introduction .....	210
Workload Management .....	211
Time Management .....	212
Student Management .....	214
Conclusion .....	217
References .....	217
Appendices.....	220
Appendix A: Consent Form and IRB Application .....	220
Appendix B: Field Interview Study Protocols .....	226
Appendix C: Questionnaires for Students, Faculty and Staff .....	241
Appendix D: Chapter 8 Data Analysis Results Tables 7-19 .....	268
