

The Political Economy of the European Constitution

Edited by

LUIGI PAGANETTO

University of Rome Tor Vergata, Italy

ASHGATE

Contents

List of Figures	vii
List of Tables	ix

PART 1

1	The European Economic Constitution Luigi Paganetto	3
2	Towards a European Constitution: Fiscal Federalism and the Allocation of Economic Competencies Jürgen Stehn	11
3	Maastricht's Fiscal Rules at Ten: An Assessment Marco Buti and Gabriele Giudice	23
4	Productive Efficiency and Corporatist Institutions Ernesto Felli and Fabio Padovano	49
5	Growth Effects of European Integration: Implications for EU Enlargement Jesús Crespo-Cuaresma, Maria Antoinette Dimitz and Doris Ritzberger-Grünwald	75
6	Towards a European Economic Constitution Renato Brunetta	91

PART 2

7	Fiscal Discipline and Policy Coordination in the Eurozone: Assessment and Proposals Jean Pisani-Ferry	119
8	EU Institutions: The Challenges of the Enlargement Process Vieri Ceriani	141
9	Let Social Europe(s) Compete! Tito Boeri	151

10	Are Cross-border Mergers Paving the Way to European Firms and Institutions? Evidence from Franco-German Case Studies Gilles Le Blanc and Delphine Corteel	169
11	The European Central Bank and the 'Economic Government of Europe' Jean Paul Fitoussi and Jérôme Creel	203
PART 3
12	Economic Policy Coordination and Policy Regimes in the European Union Stefano Micossi	219
13	The Lisbon Strategy to the New Economy. Some Economic and Institutional Aspects Pierluigi Morelli, Pier Carlo Padoan and Lisa Rodano	235
	Index	255