

134 613 1465 ✓
WTO Dispute Settlement Case
European Communities – Measures Prohibiting the
Importation and Marketing of Seal Products

WTO Compatibility of the EU Seal Regime: Why Public Morality is Enough (but May not Be Necessary)

The WTO Dispute Settlement Case
“European Communities – Measures Prohibiting the Importation and Marketing of Seal Products”

by

Christian Pitschas
Hannes Schloemann

Institute of Economic Law
Transnational Economic Law Research Center (TELC)
School of Law
Martin Luther University Halle-Wittenberg

TABLE OF CONTENTS

A. Introduction.....	5
B. The EU Seal Regime and the Dispute at the WTO	5
C. The EU Seal Regime and WTO Law: Analysis	7
I. TBT Agreement	8
1. Identifiable Product and Mandatory Compliance.....	8
2. Product Characteristics	9
a) Inuit Exception: Who, not How	9
b) MRM Exception: Why, not How	10
c) Interim Conclusion	10
II. GATT 1994	10
1. Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment Obligation	11
a) Like Products	12
b) Discriminatory Treatment.....	13
c) Interim Conclusion	14
2. National Treatment Obligation	14
a) Differential Treatment.....	15
b) Distortion of the Conditions of Competition	16
c) Interim Conclusion	16
3. Prohibition of Quantitative Restrictions	17
4. General Exceptions: "Public Morals" and "Animal Health"	18
a) Two-Tiered Test.....	18
b) Public Morals (Article XX (a))	19
c) Animal Life or Health (Article XX (b)).....	23
D. Conclusions	23
Bibliography.....	24