

928 287 785

Namibia

Country Brief

Contents

Map of Namibia	vi
Fast Facts about Namibia	vii
People and Poverty	1
A small population facing formidable challenges	1
Poverty has declined, but remains common	1
Apartheid's legacy of dualism	2
Health indicators have improved since independence	2
HIV prevalence is among the highest in Sub-Saharan Africa	4
Tuberculosis inflicts a heavy toll on the population	5
School enrollment has improved, but quality of education remains low	5
Low skills levels are a major factor in unemployment	5
The government undertook a new development strategy in 2007	6
Namibia is making progress toward meeting some of the Millennium Development Goals	6
Economy	7
Rising GDP and a healthy outlook	7
The service sector is a big driver of growth	7
Good infrastructure has bolstered tourism's expansion	8
The mining sector is the largest source of foreign exchange earnings	8
But its contribution to growth is expected to decline	9
Agriculture retains its dualistic structure	9
There are export opportunities in meat and horticulture	9
Processed fish, a key export, has been hit by depleted fish stocks	10
The manufacturing base is one of the least diversified in Africa	11
But the government is committed to supporting broader-based industrialization	11
Job creation is not rapid enough to absorb lost agricultural jobs	12
Inflation has intensified over the past year	12
Prudent policies have created a stronger fiscal position	12
There are uncertainties about future SACU revenue, however	13
The government needs to strengthen tax collection and improve quality of public spending	13
Namibia is benefiting from a favorable external environment	13
The medium-term outlook reflects several risks	14
Environment	15
Home to diverse natural wealth	15
Poor policies have been a catalyst in environmental degradation	15
A range of environmental challenges require attention	16
Freshwater scarcity is a perennial issue	16
Unsustainable land use leads to land and resource degradation	17
Deforestation is an unnecessary waste of woodland resources	17
Coastal and marine resources are fragile	17
Inadequate regulatory framework for minerals	18
Increasing pressure on biodiversity	18

Urban pollution will be a future challenge	19
Climate change poses a threat to the natural resources-based economy	20
The cost of climate change in Namibia could be very significant	20
Namibia is signatory to many international environmental frameworks	20
Government spending on environmental protection varies by country	21
Governance and Business Environment	22
Rankings of Namibia's business and competitiveness environment present a mixed picture	22
Namibian firms are productive, and unit labor costs are low	24
Microenterprises, however, are considerably less productive	25
Firms view the investment climate as relatively conducive to business	26
The legal environment surrounding private investment needs overhauling	26
Infrastructure is not a major constraint to business	27
Trade policy is biased against exports	28
The financial sector is strong and increasingly well regulated	29
Pension funds are well developed	29
Access to finance remains limited, however	30
Global Links	31
Strong economic links within Africa and beyond	31
South Africa and the EU are Namibia's largest trade partners	31
Terms of trade have improved considerably in recent years	32
A net outflow of workers since 2000, but still a much larger stock of immigrants than of emigrants	32
Foreign direct investment jumped in 2005 before falling back slightly in 2006	33
A rising but still very low level of remittances	33
The United States and Germany are the largest sources of official development assistance	33
Higher foreign exchange earnings and growing foreign reserves	34
The 25 percent debt ceiling was undershot in 2007/08	34
Namibia and the World Bank Group	35
World Bank portfolio	35
International Finance Corporation portfolio	35
Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency portfolio	35
Notes	36
References	37
Data Appendix	40