111 068 2735

Lobbyists, Governments and Public Trust

INCREASING TRANSPARENCY THROUGH LEGISLATION

Volume 1

B 368046

Table of Contents

Acronyms 8

Executive Summary 9

Chapter 1. Building a Framework for Enhancing Transparency and Accountability in Lobbying 17

Summary 18
Developing an appropriate framework 21
Clearly define the scope of policy or regulation on lobbying 25
Establish clear standards and procedures for collecting and disclosing information on lobbying 26
Set standards of conduct to foster a culture of integrity in lobbying 29
Put in place mechanisms for effective implementation to secure compliance 30
Notes 34
Bibliography 35

Chapter 2. Comparative Review of Legislation for Enhancing Transparency and Accountability in Lobbying 37

Summary 38
State of the art: Current models for regulating lobbying 40
Issues of definition: Who is to be regulated? 50
Disclosure: How much is enough? 57
Reporting processes and technologies 78
Codes of conduct 80
Securing compliance 85
Establishing and maintaining the integrity of the regulatory regime 95
Notes 98
Bibliography 105

Chapter 3. Canada's Federal Lobbying Legislation: Evolution and Operation of the Lobbyists Registration Act 107

Summary 108
Purpose and description of the Lobbyists Registration Act 108
The Lobbyists' Code of Conduct 110
Lobbyists, their registration and disclosures 111
The Registry of Lobbyists 113
Registration statistics 114
Enforcement 116
Education and awareness 119
Organisation, resources and priorities 121
The Lobbying Act 123

Notes 124

Chapter 4. Quebec's Experience: Developing a Legal Framework for Lobbying and Lobbyist Registration 125

Summary 126
Why regulate lobbying? 126
What is to be considered lobbying? 128
Which obligations are to be imposed on whom? 129
What control mechanisms are to be set up in order to ensure compliance? 134
Assessment of implementation 135
Conclusions 136

Notes 137

Annex 4.A1. Studies Conducted for Quebec's Five-Year Review of the Lobbying Transparency and Ethics Act 139

Bibliography 140

Chapter 5. Poland's Experience: Developing and Implementing the Act on Legislative and Regulatory Lobbying 141

Summary 142
The socio-political context 142
Redefining the draft law on lobbying: The Parliamentary process 144
Key elements of the Act 148
Steps required of the government administration to implement the Act 150
New Act on Lobbying: Critical views and challenges 152
Register of entities conducting professional lobbying activity 156
Implementation and enforcement: Survey results and future steps 158

Notes 162

Annex 5.A1. Survey on the Implementation of Poland's Lobbying Act 163
Bibliography 168

List of boxes

2.1. Corporatist systems and lobbying 43
2.2. State of the art: Reviewing current models for regulating lobbying 50
2.3. Self-definition of lobbyists: Examples of the European Parliament and the United States 52
2.4. Legislating lobbying in North America 54
2.5. Compliance in reporting on lobbying: Findings of the Socolar report 62
2.6. Enhancing transparency: Role of financial disclosure 67
2.7. Developing the Lobbying Code of Conduct in Australia 84
5.1. Evolution of the Polish Bill on Lobbying in the Parliamentary debate: Summary of changes 147
5.2. Evaluating the effectiveness of the Polish Act on Lobbying and its implementation: Proposed steps 152

List of tables

3.1. Active lobbyists lobbying the Canadian government 115
3.2. Active registrations in Canada as at 25 March 2008 115
3.3. Areas of concern in active registrations in Canada 115
3.4. Canadian government organisations in active registrations 116
4.1. Trends in the number of lobbyists registered with Quebec's Registry of Lobbyists 2002 to 2007 130
4.2. Number of lobbyists with at least one current mandate and numbers of mandates per group of lobbyists in Quebec 131
5.1. Inquiries of lobbyists related to law making in Poland 159
5.A1.1. Questionnaire on the implementation of the Polish Act on Lobbying 163
5.A1.2. Survey results on implementation of the Polish Act on Lobbying 164