

Corporate Social Responsibility in the 21st Century

Debates, Models and Practices Across Government,
Law and Business

---

Bryan Horrigan

BA, LLB (Qld), DPhil (Oxon)

Louis Waller Chair of Law and Associate Dean (Research), Faculty of Law, Monash University, Australia

Edward Elgar

Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA

Contents

---

Foreword	Lord Butler of Brockwell	vi
Preface		ix
List of abbreviations		xvii
Table of authorities		xix
PART 1 CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY'S CONTEMPORARY CONTROVERSIES AND ARCHITECTURE
1.	Corporate social responsibility's contemporary global context	3
2.	Concepts and elements of corporate social responsibility	34
3.	Classic and new debates about corporate social responsibility	73
PART 2 CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY'S REGULATORY MAPS AND OPTIONS
4.	Mapping governmental frameworks and roles on corporate social responsibility	131
5.	Charting the regulation of corporate social responsibility and its reform	168
6.	Sensitizing boardroom obligations to corporate social responsibility	197
PART 3 CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY'S APPLICATIONS AND FUTURES
7.	Recasting UK corporate law for the 21st century	229
8.	Putting corporate social responsibility into practice for business	269
9.	Corporate social responsibility's emerging human rights challenges	302
10.	Advancing the 21st century corporate social responsibility agenda	339
Bibliography		378
Index		407