

PAPUA ROAD MAP

Negotiating the past, improving the present and securing the future

Editor:

Muridan S. Widjojo

Translator and English editor:

Sherry Kasman Entus

Writers:

Muridan S. Widjojo

Adriana Elisabeth

Amirudin Al Rahab

Cahyo Pamungkas

Rosita Dewi

INSTITUTE OF SOUTHEAST ASIAN STUDIES
Singapore

LIPI

YAYASAN
PUSTAKA OBOR INDONESIA

Jakarta, 2010

B 377294

TABLE OF CONTENTS

FOREWORD

By Minister of Defense of Republic of Indonesia, Prof Dr Juwono Sudarsono	vii
Head of LIPI's Speech on the Launch of 'Papua Road Map' Prof Dr Umar Anggara Jenie
Head of Indonesian Institute of Sciences (LIPI)	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
Glossary of Indonesian Terms and Acronyms	xv
Foreword: Road Map to a New Papua	xxi
LIPI Foreword	xxxii

Chapter one 1

The Mapping Endeavour: Reading the Papua Conflict

• Introduction	3
• Sources of the Papua Conflict	6
• Actors, Roles and Interests	18
• Otsus and Contemporary Issues	27
• Conclusion	35

Chapter two 37

Recognition: Empowering Indigenous Papuans

• Introduction	40
• The Significance of Recognition	40
• Affirmative Policy	44
• Indigenous Papuans and Papuan-ness	47
• The Antagonism of Papuan versus Amber	49
• The History of Integration without the Indigenous Papuans	51
• Papuanizing the Bureaucracy	52
• Accommodating the Symbols of Papua	54
• Strengthening Human Resources	61
• Building a New Class of Indigenous Papuan Entrepreneurs	66
• Papuan Supremacy in Sports	70
• The Role of Customary Institutions	74

• Conclusion	79
Chapter three	81
A New Paradigm for Development
• The Concept of Development	84
• The New Order Period	86
• The Special Autonomy Period	91
• Development and Special Autonomy	108
• Closing Remarks	115
Chapter four	119
The Papua Dialogue: ‘Boiling Stones’
• Why dialogue?	121
• Exiting the Conflict	125
• The National Dialogue and Lesson of the Team of 100	129
• Levels	132
• Stages	135
• Representation	139
• Themes and Issues	145
• Closing Remarks	150
Chapter five	153
The Road to Reconciliation in Papua: Between Truth Disclosure and Court Evidence
• Introduction	155
• The Growth of Mutual Trust	156
• Violence and Impunity	161
• The Road to Court Evidence	168
• Truth Disclosure	174
• Steps towards a Politics of Reconciliation	180
• Conclusion	183
Closing Remarks	187
References	191
Index	203
About the Papua Road Map Team	207