

LEE A. TAVIS AND TIMOTHY M. TAVIS

VALUES - BASED MULTINATIONAL MANAGEMENT

Achieving Enterprise Sustainability through a Human Rights Strategy

*University of Notre Dame Press
Notre Dame, Indiana*

CONTENTS

Foreword ix

Reverend Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C.

Preface xi

Acknowledgments xv

PART I

THE NEW MULTINATIONAL ENVIRONMENT 1

ONE

Global Integration: Its Driving Force and Pervasive Impact 3

TWO

Responding to the Future 29

PART II

REDEFINING THE ROLE OF
THE MULTINATIONAL ENTERPRISE 53

THREE

Assessing the Appropriate Role of the Enterprise 55

FOUR

Partnering with Nongovernmental Organizations 101

PART III

FOUNDATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS 123

FIVE

The Nature of Human Rights 125

SIX

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights 140

PART IV

IMPLEMENTING A HUMAN RIGHTS STANDARD 155

SEVEN

The United Nations Global Compact 157

EIGHT

Implementing the Global Compact at Novartis 176

PART V

MANAGING THE FIRM AS A COMMUNITY 215

NINE

The Individual in the Organization 217

TEN

The Person and the Enterprise: Management Models 230

Epilogue 257

Notes 261

Bibliography 299

Index 331