Meta-organizations

Göran Ahrne

Stockholm Centre for Organizational Research (Score), Stockholm University, Sweden and

Nils Brunsson

Stockholm Centre for Organizational Research (Score), Stockholm School of Economics, Sweden

Edward Elgar
Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA

Contents

Preface		vii
List of abbreviations and acronyms		viii
1	Organized organizations	1
	The need for a theory	4
	An overview of the book	6
2	Many meta-organizations	9
	Organizations that do not know who they are	9
	Why "meta-organizations"?	12
	Meta-organizations over time	14
	How many are there?	17
	Case studies	22
	Other meta-organizations	38
3	Environment, members, and meta-organizations	43
	Organization as order	44
	Decided and non-decided orders	49
	Organizational environments	53
	Individuals or organizations as members	57
4	Creating and sustaining meta-organizations	62
	Eliminating environment	62
	Incentives for creating meta-organizations	65
	Recruiting members	77
	Dependence on members	85
	From environment to member	90
5	Similarity, dissimilarity, and identity formation	92
	The first and last names of organizations	93
	Shifting relations between similarity and dissimilarity	100

6 Conflicts and decision-making problems 107
Sources of conflict 107
Difficulties solving conflicts 113
Handling conflicts in meta-organizations 123
7 The dynamics of meta-organizations 132
Survival or dissolution 132
Transitional forms 137
8 Meta-organizations and individual-based organizations 142
Underestimated organizations? 146
9 Organized globalization 149
Globalization through meta-organizations 149
Globalization of meta-organizations 155
Governance and networks 162
A striped order? 166
The study of meta-organizations 170

References 173
Index 185