

898 434 882

Who Has the Cure?

B 362288

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
1 Universal, Effective, and Affordable Health Insurance: An Economic Imperative Jason Furman and Robert E. Rubin	1
2 Achieving Universal Coverage through Medicare Part E(veryone) Gerard F. Anderson and Hugh R. Waters	9
3 Evolving beyond Traditional Employer-Sponsored Health Insurance Stuart M. Butler	49
4 A Comprehensive Cure: The Guaranteed Health Care Access Plan—A Voucher-Style Reform Ezekiel J. Emanuel and Victor R. Fuchs	91
5 Taking Massachusetts National: Incremental Universalism for the United States Jonathan Gruber	121

6	Mending the Medicare Prescription Drug Benefit: Improving Consumer Choices and Restructuring Purchasing	143
	Richard G. Frank and Joseph P. Newhouse
7	The Promise of Progressive Cost Consciousness in Health Care Reform	175
	Jason Furman
8	A Wellness Trust to Prioritize Disease Prevention	227
	Jeanne M. Lambrew
	Contributors	265
	Index	269