

INTEGRATING CHINA

Towards the
Coordinated Market Economy

Peter Nolan

ANTHEM PRESS
LONDON · NEW YORK · DELHI

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	viii
Author and Co-authors	viii
Foreword	ix
1. Reflections on 4th June 1989 Peter Nolan	1
2. The Global Business Revolution and Developing Countries Peter Nolan, Jin Zhang and Chunhang Liu	19
3. The Globalisation Challenge and the Catch-up of Developing Countries: The Case of the Brewing Industry Peter Nolan and Yuantao Guo	43
4. The Global Industrial Consolidation and the Challenge for China: The Case of the Steel Industry Peter Nolan and Huaichuan Rui	71
5. China in the Asian Financial Crisis: ‘Cutting the Trees to Save the Forest’ Peter Nolan and Wang Xiaoqiang	95
6. China at the Crossroads Peter Nolan	145
7. Capitalism and Freedom: The Contradictory Character of Globalisation Peter Nolan	177
8. Capitalism, Conflict and Cooperation: US-China Relations under Capitalist Globalisation Peter Nolan and Jin Zhang	231
Index	265