

Langaa &
African Studies centre

The Politics of Neoliberal Reforms
in Africa

State and civil society in Cameroon

Piet Konings

Contents

List of Tables ix
Acknowledgements xi
Abbreviations xiii
Map of the Republic of Cameroon xvi

1 Contesting Neoliberal Reforms in Africa
Introduction 1
The impact of neoliberalism on Africa 2
State and civil society opposition 6
Organisation of the book 13

2 The introduction of neoliberal economic and political reforms in the Cameroonian post-colonial state
Introduction 21
The nature of the post-colonial state in Cameroon 24
The post-colonial state and structural adjustment 31
The post-colonial state and democratisation 35
Conclusion 43

3 Opposition and social-democratic change in Cameroon: The Social Democratic Front
Introduction 47
The birth and growth of the SDF 48
The Anglophone-Francophone divide within the SDF 55
The regime's repressive and divisive tactics and its international support 59
The SDF in disarray 66
Conclusion 69

4 The neoliberalising Cameroonian state and private capital accumulation
Introduction 73
The post-colonial state and capital accumulation 76
Privatisation and capital concentration 83
Globalisation and new forms of domestic private capital accumulation 93
Conclusion 98

5	Political liberalisation and Anglophone secessionist movements in Cameroon
	Introduction	101
	The Anglophone problem	103
	The Anglophone movements' struggle for secession	110
	The SCNC leadership's pursuit of international recognition for its secessionist claims	114
	The Anglophone leadership's sensitisation and mobilisation campaign	118
	Prospects for Anglophone secessionist claims	121
	Conclusion	125
6	Good governance, privatisation and ethno-regional conflict in Cameroon
	Introduction	129
	Governance and privatisation in Cameroon	132
	Privatisation of the CDC and ethno-regional opposition	136
	Ethno-regional protest actions against CDC privatisation	141
	Conclusion	151
7	Good governance and border conflicts in Africa: The Bakassi dispute between Cameroon and Nigeria
	Introduction	155
	The development of the Bakassi dispute	158
	The implications of the 2002 ICJ ruling and the 2006 Greentree Agreement	163
	Regional resistance to the 2002 ICJ verdict and the 2006 Greentree Agreement	168
	Conclusion	174
8	China and Africa in the era of neoliberal globalisation with Cameroon as a case study
	Introduction	177
	The impact of renewed Chinese interest in Africa	180
	Africa's response to China's new engagement with their continent	187
	China-Cameroon relations	190
	Chinese investment in Cameroon	192
	Trade relations between Cameroon and China	196
	Chinese aid to Cameroon	198
	Conclusion	200

9	Political liberalisation and the violent university students' revolt in Cameroon
	Introduction	205
	Political liberalisation and student organisation along ethno-regional lines	207
	Political liberalisation and student revolt, 1990-96	215
	Conclusion	230
10	Solving transportation problems in African cities during neoliberal reforms: Innovative responses by the youth in Douala, Cameroon
	Introduction	233
	The emergence and growth of bendskin and pousse-pousse in New Bell	237
	Bendskin drivers and pousseurs : Some socioeconomic characteristics	240
	Benskin drivers and pousseurs : Masters of the road	243
	Conclusion	249
11	Trade unionism in Cameroon and neoliberal globalisation: From crisis to revitalisation?
	Introduction	253
	Cameroonian trade unionism in deep crisis	253
	Prospects for trade-union revitalisation	262
12	Structural adjustment and trade union identity in Africa: The case of Cameroonian plantation workers
	Introduction	265
	Estate production and occupational change at Ndu	267
	Trade unionism on the Ndu estate and structural adjustment	272
	Ndu workers and trade union identity under structural adjustment	277
	Conclusion	280
	References	285
	Index	315