
From Economic Crisis
TO REFORM

IMF PROGRAMS IN LATIN AMERICA AND EASTERN EUROPE

Grigore Pop-Eleches

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY PRESS • PRINCETON AND OXFORD

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations and Tables ix
List of Abbreviations xiii
Preface xv

1. Introduction 1

2. A Theoretical Approach to IMF Program 27
Initiation and Implementation
Appendix to Chapter 2—Statistical Indicators and Methods 53

3. Changing Crisis “Recipes”:
The International Drivers of IMF Programs 66

4. Navigating External Crises: Case Study Evidence 105

5. Domestic Political Responses to Economic Crises 135

6. Domestic Crisis Politics: Case Study Evidence 174

7. The Great Reconciliation?—Latin America and the IMF in the 1990s 238

8. Theoretical Conclusions and Policy Implications 284

Appendix—A Formal Model of IMF Program Initiation and Implementation 307

Bibliography 323

Index 335