

Sustainable Reform and Development in Post-Olympic China

Edited by Shujie Yao, Bin Wu,
Stephen L. Morgan and Dylan Sutherland

The Editors would like to acknowledge financial support from the Chinese Language Council International, Nottingham Confucius Institute and the Leverhulme Centre for Research on Globalisation and Economic Policy.

Contents

List of illustrations	ix
List of contributors	xii
List of abbreviations	xvi
Introduction	xviii
SHUJIE YAO, BIN WU, STEPHEN L. MORGAN AND DYLAN SUTHERLAND
1 Development of the Chinese private sector over the past 30 years: retrospect and prospect	1
HONGLIANG ZHENG AND YANG YANG
2 Cost–profit efficiency and governance effects of commercial banks in China 1995–2005	13
CHUNXIA JIANG AND SHUJIE YAO
3 Regional inequalities in China: a non-monetary view	38
STEPHEN L. MORGAN AND FANG SU
4 Low-carbon China: the role of international collaboration	60
DAVID TYFIELD AND JAMES WILSDON
5 Effects of policy measures on energy demand and greenhouse gas emissions in China’s road transport sector	77
XIAOYU YAN AND ROY CROOKES
6 Social networks, innovation and the development of industrial clusters in China	97
JINMIN WANG

7	Globalization and the seafarers supply in China BIN WU AND SHUJIE YAO	108
8	China's diaspora and returnees: the impact on China's globalization process HUIYAO WANG AND DAVID ZWEIG	124
9	Corporate social responsibility in China's largest transnational corporations DYLAN SUTHERLAND AND GLEN WHELAN	145
10	Nationalism versus democracy: China's bloggers and the Western media DAVID K. HEROLD	172
	Index	191